CCG to meet with council over surgery closure claims

LACK OF PUBLIC CONSULTATION LEADS TO HEALTH SCRUTINY COMMITTEE'S CALL FOR TALKS

DORSET Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) bosses are to meet with members of Dorset County Council's health scrutiny committee over claims the healthcare organisation plans to close GP practices.

Dorset CCG have published their draft Primary Care Commissioning Strategy and Plan which suggests potential for one group of general practices to deliver services through a reduced number of locations – which could be consolidated from eight to three or five with all urgent primary care being delivered from one location such as Bridport Community Hospital.

It proposes that general practices need to work more closely together as a network or 'super-practice' but bosses stress that they cannot make practices merge or close.

Cllr Ros Kayes, a member of the health scrutiny

by Lottie Welch

lottie@viewnews.co.uk

committee, raised concerns about the CCG's proposals as no public consultation would take place on the potential delivery of primary care and suggested taking the issue to health secretary Jeremy Hunt.

Members of the committee discussed the CCG's Primary Care Commissioning Strategy at a meeting on Monday and evaluated the proposed changes as a major change and subject to intervention from the committee.

They also want to make the CCG aware of the committee's displeasure that the CCG did not bring the matter fully to their attention earlier and believe the proposed changes could have a devastating effect on rural communities.

A special meeting with members and the CCG has been organised to take place at some point in December.

Rob Payne, head of primary care NHS Dorset CCG, said: "As stated previously, we have no plans to close any practices and we welcome the opportunity to meet with the Dorset health scrutiny committee to discuss the document in more detail."

THE Mayor of Bridport Cllr Ros Kayes laid the first wreath at the town's remembrance commemorations on Sunday.

Large crowds watched as Brigadier John Dean (Royal Artillery retired) led the parade, which marched from the town hall to the war memorial.

FORMER Woodroffe School student Rob Larcombe is a graphic designer with View From Newspapers and the recently-launched Etchd Creative, a new design studio with a team of young creatives offering everything from printing posters, leaflets and business cards, to re-branding, website design and social media solutions.

Rob, 28, grew up in Lyme Regis and now lives in Axminster. He is also an active member of Lyme Regis Football Club.

● WHAT is Etchd Creative?

Etchd Creative is a design studio, launched earlier this year, and based in Lyme Regis. We offer all aspects of print and web design, social media and online marketing, provided by an exciting and talented young team, full of fresh ideas and technical skill.

● HOW did the company get started and how has it developed so far?

Etchd was started in early 2016, and runs side-by-side with the View from Newspapers production unit. The team has grown in size from five to 12 in the last 18 months as production requirements have increased.

Due to the deadlines for the various products we work on in the newspaper side of things, we had a certain amount of downtime, and a decision was made to start Etchd and offer a service to the area, making use of the wide skill base the team has.

● CAN you give some example of some of the work you have carried out?

Our clients have included J. Larcombe Architectural Consultants, Devon & Dorset Investment Group, Axe Valley Property, Lorrain De Peyer, Lyme Regis Football Club, and B Sharp, among others. This work has varied from complete re-branding and creating new websites to designing programmes and leaflets for events.

We have also designed and continue to maintain websites for View From Newspapers (www.viewnews.co.uk) and its sister titles in London (www.londonnewsonline.co.uk), and we also produce the Lyme Regis Experience magazine, with the Christmas edition having just come out this week.

● WHAT services does Etchd Creative offer?

Etchd specialise in branding and full website design. Anything from a single logo design and event posters, to full corporate branding packages and fully responsive content-managed websites. Due to the varied skillset of the Etchd team, we are able to accommodate most design requests, priding ourselves on high quality work, completed to tight deadlines.

We also offer social media and online, using collective knowledge and ideas on promoting business online, through various platforms. It's always amazing to see how business can increase for our clients after a rebrand and improvement in social media management.

● TELL us a little about your team...

The Etchd team is made up of twelve designers; many of whom joined the company straight from university or college. We have incredible illustrators; web designers with vast knowledge of web and coding standards; and creatively-minded graphic designers.

● WHAT do you enjoy doing in your spare time?

I've been a member of Lyme Regis Football Club since I was a kid and currently play for the Rovers team and sit on the club's committee. I was the club's youngest player-manager at 19 and managed the third team again last season. I also enjoy playing bass guitar and have been in several local bands over the years.

Man charged with breaching Criminal Behaviour Order

A BEAMINSTER man has been given a community order, a curfew and a fine for breaching his Criminal Behaviour Order (CBO). Christopher Vye, 64, of Hoghill Street was issued with the CBO in August after he was found guilty of assaulting a member of staff at a pub in Bridport and has been arrested and charged with seven breaches of his CBO.

The CBO stated that Mr Vye must not: act or incite others to behave in an anti-social manner, use or incite others to use threatening, intimidating, insulting or abusive words or behaviour, enter any licensed premises in the Bridport and Beaminster areas, to which he has already been barred under the Pubwatch scheme, have open containers of alcohol in public or be drunk in a public place.

He was also ordered to engage with EDP Drug & Alcohol Services for a minimum of three times a week until discharged by EDP.

On Wednesday, November 7th at Bournemouth Crown Court, Mr Vye was given a community order requiring him to abide by a two month curfew between the hours of 8pm and 7am and ordered to pay a £85 victim surcharge.

He was arrested and charged with breaching his CBO on September 1st, 10th, 15th and 27th, as well as October 12th, 10th and 27th.

A spokesperson for Dorset Police said: "Bridport and Beaminster Neighbourhood Policing Teams are committed to dealing with alcohol related crime and anti-social behaviour.

"The Criminal Behaviour Order can be applied for by police to tackle a person's ongoing behaviour which is having a detrimental effect on the community."

CCG to meet with health scrutiny committee

would like members of the public to come along and discuss this with us."

The CCG previously released a statement responding to allegations that they were to close GP practices.

In the statement, Mr Payne said: "We want to be absolutely clear that we have no plans to close any practices and any claims that we do are inaccurate.

"We are in fact actively working across Dorset to support practices where they are facing the greatest pressures.

"Primary care faces a number of challenges in the future and if we continue as we are doing, our workforce and finances could soon be overstretched.

"The draft Primary Care Commissioning Strategy and Plan considers how services could be delivered differently to ensure they are safe and sustainable for the future; for example, consolidation of sites or back office functions.

"This draft version of the strategy which is on our website and has been circulated to key stakeholders to gain their views.

"Our ongoing strategy is to work with local groups of practices to help shape the way in which we would support new models of care.

"It is up to individual GP surgeries to decide whether to merge or not as they are independent contractors, we cannot force any change.

"We have been listening to the pressures that general practice faces and it is clear that practices will have to work together and explore new ways of working and looking at transforming the way care is delivered if we want to ensure that services are sustainable in the future."

Tory councillors block chance to run bus services

CONSERVATIVE county councillors have voted against a motion asking the county council to challenge clause 21 of the Bus Services Bill, which would prevent local authorities from running bus services.

Cllr Ros Kayes, who put the motion forward, said: "This is utter folly. They have simply kicked the issue into the long grass by referring it to a committee which won't consider the issues until January – two months after the third reading of the bill.

"The opportunity offered by the combined authority would allow us to become a transport authority which could set up its own social enterprise to run buses.

"Examples of where this has happened in the UK have led to better quality buses and more passengers.

"Conservative councillors complain all the time about cuts to services in their rural areas, and then vote like lemmings to support them.

"I am shocked that they will not challenge this pernicious clause which would tie Dorset's hands and prevent us from providing a sustainable, economically viable public transport system into the future."

Recycling charges questioned as no increase in fly-tipping reported

THE Dorset Waste Partnership (DWP) have reported that there has been no increase in fly tipping in the county since charges were introduced at household recycling centres, however Bridport town councillors question the move to charge.

Charges for people to recycle hardcore and rubble, soil, plasterboard, tyres, asbestos and gas bottles at the county's centres came into force in September.

Councillors were updated on the impact of the charges at an environment and social wellbeing committee meeting earlier this month.

Town clerk Bob Gillis said: "The Dorset Waste Partnership are monitoring and they say the depot reported that there doesn't appear to be any change in fly tipping on public land in Bridport following the introduction of charges, but they are continuing to monitor it.

"They have had a couple of reports of black bags of domestic waste and furniture, which was a sofa, reports of some commercial waste and they have also had a couple of reports of dumping on private land of 20 tyres in one go.

"They don't feel there has been any major increase in fly tipping since the introduction of charging but they are continuing to monitor it."

Cllr Julian Jones welcomed the news and said: "I am satisfied with the response that they haven't noticed any big change, there has always been fly tipping, fly tipping before these charges came in, there is always a small minority of people who are just ignorant and selfish and do this sort of thing."

However, Cllr Dave Rickard was sceptical and felt it was too soon to tell if the charges had had an impact and said that it could be better to close for a day than to charge.

He said: "Whether a small amount – a couple of bags here a tyre there – whether that is being lost at the moment, I think it is far too soon to know the impact.

"I think we need to ask around, farmers may find it three months later when they go down in the meadow and find they have got it. It won't be obvious.

"They [DWP] haven't got people criss-crossing the county looking for bits of fly tipping, it will only be on reports.

"I am concerned with the principle, as a society we provided people with the chance to recycle stuff and it is a public service.

"We have only had the thing for a year and now they are starting to charge people to go there. When is it going to stop? Are they going to charge for every time you go in there? An entrance fee or something? It will undo all the work of recycling.

"I am really concerned so we have to get some evidence one way or the other, if it is not going to make an impact, fine, but I suspect it will have a bad effect on recycling numbers.

"One of the options, [from a consultation last year] as they had to save money, was would you rather have a charge for certain items or close for a day, but they didn't say which certain items or how much or when they were going to bring it in.

"You could find a time to close it which would cause the least problem and keep it free at the point of use.

"We were one of the last areas to do doorstep recycling and to go and change the rules in less than 12 months is not doing us any favours."

Next WATAG meeting

THE next meeting of the West Dorset Western Area Transport Action Group (WATAG) will be held on Thursday, November 24th at Bridport WI Hall in North Street at 6.30pm.

This month the group will look at the new system for the contracting of school transport for eligible secondary school age pupils and it is hoped there will be an update on the Bridport Area Neighbourhood Plan from the public transport aspect. There will also be an update on the community bus services already in place.

The committee welcome all levels of councillors, transport operators and Dorset Travel officials.

There will be a democratic session when anyone may raise new questions about local bus and rail services.

Have your say on future of medical services

BRIDPORT Town Council would like to hear residents' views on likely changes to local and Dorset wide medical services.

An open discussion will take place as part of the public open forum prior to the start of the full council meeting on Tuesday, November 22nd at 7pm in the town hall.

This comes at a time when the Clinical Commissioning Group is due to commence consultation on its Clinical Services Review, having published its Primary Care Commissioning Strategy including proposals for local GP services.

Fairey Band returns to Beaminster

■ THE Fairey Band will be returning to Beaminster this Saturday, November 19th, to perform in St Mary's Church.

The annual concert attracts hundreds of people who enjoy a selection of classic songs and acid brass from one of the world's finest brass bands.

The band, of which Beaminster residents Margaret and Tony Greenham are vice presidents, recently came second in the National Brass Band Championships held in the Royal Albert Hall in London.

The proceeds from this year's concert, which takes place at 3pm, will go towards the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance.

Tickets are available from Symonds and Sampsons estate agent, the church office on Hoghill Street, the Yarn Barton Centre, or by calling 01308 862493.

Art trail showcase needs public support to continue

AN ART trail in Lyme Regis, which showcases work by Bridport artist Isla Chaney, needs the public's support if it is to continue.

Organisers and artists involved in the ArtFest Sculpture Trail are asking for the public to help secure up to £25,000 in funding for a continued public art presence in the town.

John Calder, curator of this year's sculpture trail – which saw installations appear across the town throughout summer – has applied to the Aviva Community Fund for the grant, but the public need to place their votes to ensure the project is supported.

If successful, it is hoped that a continued public art presence will be created in Lyme Regis, building on the experience gained from the past two sculpture trails that were held in conjunction with the annual ArtsFest, and creating an out-of-season attraction for both residents and visitors.

The project has already received more than 880 votes and Mr Calder has been backed by the town council, Town Mill Arts and LymeForward.

Funding would be spent on hiring 12 of the "most worthy and robust" sculptures from this year's trail for a further 12 months at a total cost of £9,705.

A further £13,800 would be spent on creating a bronze replica of one of the most popular pieces from this year's trail, 'Hareman' by Clare Trenchard, which appeared in Langmoor Gardens, as this proved not robust enough as a resin cast work.

It is then hoped to establish a commissioning programme for new work.

The grant application says that this element of the project required further development and a budget of £1,200 would be used to work on this for future years.

To vote for the project – 'A Continuous Public Art Presence in Lyme Regis' – visit the website www.avivacomunityfund.co.uk/voting/project/view/16-1576 and register to place votes

Voters will have up to 10 votes which you are able to use all on one project.

Voting closes at 12noon on Friday, November 18th and 84 finalists from the 301 projects will be announced on November 22nd.

If successful, the sculpture project will go forward to a panel of independent judges who will select the worthy winners and their decisions will be announced on January 10th 2017.

Bridport remembers

by Stuart Broom

HUGE crowds lined the streets before taking their place around the war memorial in South Street on Sunday as the people of Bridport assembled to pay their respects to all those that gave their lives fighting for their country.

In warm, sunny weather with a nip of autumnal air, associations from veterans to youth organisations laid wreaths in the traditional Remembrance Day Parade.

Led by Brigadier John Dean (Royal Artillery retired) the parade of around 300 people were first inspected by the Mayor of Bridport Cllr Ros Kayes in East Street, before marching from the town hall to the war memorial led by the Wessex Military Band under Bandmaster Phil Bond.

Brig Dean was assisted by Parade Marshall Captain Nik Taylor 2IC 'C' Company 6th Rifles and Sergeant Major Tindall also of 'C' Company 6th Rifles.

Heading the civic party was Sgt Harry Braddock of the Bridport Army Cadet Force carrying the Town Union Standard.

He was accompanied by veteran Luke Woods carrying the Bridport Branch of the Rifles Association flag, and LCpl Ellwood Wheeler with the Devon and Dorset flags.

The rest of the party included the deputy town mayor Cllr Anne Rickard and her escort Cllr Dave Rickard, town clerk Bob Gillis and town councillors and officers.

The macebearers Cyril Whitlock and Paul Violet attended behalf of the regiment with the added words 'Remembering Fido'.

The parade filed into St Mary's Church for a remembrance service conducted by Rev'd Canon Andrew Evans, Rev'd Pete Stone, Rev'd Janis Moore and Rev'd Ann Ayling.

The Wessex Military Band played in the church, with readings by Brig Dean and the Mayor of Bridport.

After the conclusion of the service, the band headed the parade back to Bucky Doo Square where the mayor took the salute before addressing those present.

Cllr Ros Kayes said: "I would like to thank everyone who took part and attended the parade and service, and to the hard work by everyone involved for making it such a special day. I was particularly pleased to see so many young people taking part; I think it is the most I have ever seen which is wonderful."

Among the congregation in church was Gen Graham Hollands (Ret'd) who lives in France and conducts Normandy battlefield tours, whilst in the crowd outside was broadcaster and journalist Jeremy Paxman who had appeared at the Electric Palace the night before as part of the Bridport Literary Festival.

Wessex Military Band marked the 100th anniversary of Battle of the Somme by including a helicon in its ranks – an old version of a tuba which was used in British military bands during the early part of the 20th century.

Crowdfunding pays for dog's life-saving surgery

A LOCAL six-year-old boy's crowdfunding appeal has raised £7,500 for a life-saving op for his beloved Labrador – which needs to be done by a human heart surgeon.

Joseph Foster and his family, from Bridport, launched a desperate crowdfunding appeal to pay for complex surgery for their poorly 16-month-old puppy, Tess.

The golden Lab suffers from a rare, terminal condition which means it has an erratic heart rate and could suffer a heart attack at any time.

A tricky procedure to correct the defect, radiofrequency ablation, is only available at one centre in England. It costs £7,500 and must be carried out by an expert surgeon.

The family have insurance for Tess, but it only pays out up to £3,000 per condition – and they've already hit the limit.

So Joseph, with the help of his dad James Foster, 44, mum Rachael Rogers, 42, big sister Ellie, 17, and family friends, launched an appeal to raise the cash.

Appealing for dog lovers to donate to save Tess, Joseph said: "I love her because she's my dog."

"She nearly died one day but she's a really lucky dog and she never died. I would feel happy if she had the operation because she will be happy. I love her."

The appeal went viral and within 24 hours, Joseph had raised the cash needed.

They now plan to get Tess booked in for treatment – which has a 95 per cent success rate – at Davies Veterinary Specialists, Herts, as soon as possible.

James, a law lecturer at Weymouth College said the disease is like a "ticking time bomb" or a "death sentence".

He said: "We have been inundated with donations – there was even one for £500.

"It has been a really overwhelming experience and Joseph is so pleased. He and Ellie are over the moon.

"They are just absolutely blown away by it. Joseph is so happy that Tess has got a chance to live.

"Tess is a young dog and she is strong. I really am optimistic that we are going to get a full life out of her now. It's absolutely amazing."

Tess' operation will involve permanently removing the abnormal pathways that create her erratic heart rate and fix the 'short circuit' in the organ.

Labradors are believed to be particularly susceptible to tachycardia but it is not known why.

Silent Roz fundraises again

AVID fundraiser Roz Copson has raised over £500 for a local charity through a sponsored silent bike-a-thon.

Roz, who lives in West Bay, spent 10 hours not speaking with intervals of riding a static exercise bike at the Ropemakers on West Street.

She managed to raise a total of £525 for the Living Tree cancer support group.

Roz said: "I would like to say a very big thank you to Geraldine and John Baker at the Ropemakers in Bridport and all their great staff for making this sponsored silence and bike-a-thon possible.

"Thank you also for the encouragement given by friends, family, local business and, not forgetting, all the members of the Living Tree who have 'adopted' me, and for whom this fundraising effort is for.

"As you may know, the Living Tree is a local self help support group based in Bridport for people who have experienced cancer, for their families and carers, people at different stages in their cancer journeys – some recently diagnosed, others undergoing treatment, some in remission and others post cancer.

"It is not too late to send a donation, either at www.thelivingtree.org.uk or to Roz Copson, Flat 30, Chesil House, Station Road, West Bay Bridport, DT6 4EW."

Farewell to Virginia after 30 years

HAPPY RETIREMENT: Virginia McShane (centre) together with fellow volunteer drivers

AFTER 30 years as a volunteer for the Bride Valley Car Service, Virginia McShane has retired as the coordinator.

The service provides lifts to hospitals, doctors' surgeries and other medical appointments for people without transport throughout the Bride Valley.

At a celebration tea party in Litton Cheney attended by the current team of volunteer drivers, Virginia was thanked by chairperson Diana Cheater for her dedication, for which she has been the coordinator for the last seven years.

She also saw the service through its transitional period, after the ending of financial support from Dorset County Council.

The role of coordinator is to match users' needs with drivers' availability, and as many of the users and volunteer drivers will testify, Virginia carried out the task with patience, kindness and enthusiasm.

Nothing was ever too much trouble and enormous thanks are due to her from the Bride Valley community.

Local Neighbourhood Policing Team changes

THERE have been some recent changes to the Neighbourhood Policing Teams (NPT) in the Bridport area.

The Bridport NPT now consists of PCSO Paul Miners, PCSO Alex

Bishop and PCSO Pete Smith.

Lyme Regis NPT is run by PCSO John Burton and Beaminster NPT has PCSO Luke White at the helm.

All three teams are overseen by Sgt Jamie Clark at Bridport Police Station.

To contact the teams email either Bridport-Town-NPT@Dorset.PNN.Police.uk, Beaminster-NPT@Dorset.PNN.Police.uk or lyme-regis-NPT@Dorset.PNN.Police.uk

Santa's on his way

COMING SOON: Santa was a great hit with the children last year when he visited

SANTA and his helpers from the Rotary Club of Brit Valley have been busy getting his sledge and reindeer ready to visit Bridport and the surrounding towns and villages during December.

He will be visiting the following areas starting on December 1st around 5.30pm each night, so make sure that your youngsters will be around to cheer him on his way.

On Thursday December 1st he will be in Bradpole. On Monday December 5th he will be visiting Howard Road, Jessop's Avenue & Happy Island, and the following night (Tuesday, December 6th) he will be in Court Orchard.

He then drives his sleigh to visit Beaminster on Thursday December 8th, and will be there again on Monday, December 12th.

He's back in Bridport on Tuesday, December 13th in St Katherine's Way and Pasture Way, before visiting Meadowlands and West Bay on Thursday, December 15th.

In the week leading up to Christmas he starts in Skilling on Monday, December 19th, and will be in Cherry Tree and West Mead on Tuesday, December 19th, before finishing in Burton Bradstock on Thursday, December 22nd.

Santa and his sleigh will also be in Bridport town centre on Saturday mornings during December as well as in Buckle-doo for Bridport Christmas Cheer on Wednesday, December 7th.

The Rotary Club of Brit Valley would like to thank Humbert's Estate Agents (01308 422215) for their continuing generous sponsorship of the float, and Motorwell Bridport for the loan of their four-wheel drive truck to pull Santa's sleigh!

Bishop blesses Catholic church extension

A MASS blessing by Bishop Mark O'Toole, Bishop of the Diocese of Plymouth, was held at the Catholic Church in Bridport on Tuesday, November 1st, in order for the Bishop to bestow a blessing on the newly-extended church.

was to be made a Canon, a great honour for him and the parish.

A party to celebrate was held afterwards in the church hall, attended by many parishioners and people of Bridport.

Cake-baking Jade fundraises for charity

■ LOCAL resident Jade Young's second tea party of the year held in aid of Crohn's and Colitis UK raised a total of £1,216.06 to support the charity that helps those living with the condition.

Jade, pictured, made all the cakes sold and eaten on the day and would like to say a huge thank you to everyone who attended, the volunteer helpers and the many local businesses and individuals who donated prizes for the successful raffle.

This brings Jade's sum from both events to £2,161.06.

Brownies learn to walk in the dark with PCSO

MEMBERS of the first and second Bothenhampton Brownies had a visit from local PCSO Pete Smith to educate them on walking in the dark. He talked about the dangers of not wearing bright and reflective clothing or not having a torch with the darker evenings, when out walking dogs, coming home from the park or riding their bikes and letting an adult know where they are. The group enjoyed the visit and the gifts they received of plain and flashing reflectors to put on their bikes, coats and bags, and also wrist reflector bands.

A spokesperson said: "From all of us at first and second Bothenhampton Brownies, we thank you for taking time out to come and visit and make us more aware of the dangers – great community spirit."

■ MEMBERS of the St Andrew's Preschool committee

Bradpole Preschool holds autumn fair

MORE than £700 has been raised for Bradpole Preschool at their autumn fair earlier this month.

Visitors enjoyed browsing stalls selling home-made cakes, children's clothing, bric-a-brac, jewellery and jam along with a tombola, lucky dip and raffle.

Children were able to make their own leaf creatures, have a go at firework paintings, decorate a cake and get their faces painted.

Jo Burling-ton, chair of Bradpole Preschool, said: "We held an autumn fayre in order to raise much needed funds for the preschool and also to have some fun on a Saturday morning."

"There was a lovely atmosphere during the event and it

Harmony drop-in centre celebrates second anniversary

DOZENS of Harmony drop-in centre members and helpers have come together to celebrate the service's second anniversary.

The group, which offers support for people living with or recovering from a mental illness, was first started in Downes Street in November 2014.

Now members meet at Bridport Youth Centre where they all shared a lunch to mark the occasion.

Joanne Seward, facilitator for Harmony, said: "It is two years, which is hard to believe.

"We started out with around six members and we have now offered support to 105 people. I would like to thank all the volunteers on our second anniversary and our wonderful members.

"We base Harmony on two principles: the concept of recovery and of peer support.

"We see Harmony as a hub and we are trying to develop spokes, therefore we have an allotment group and there is a sports group on Fridays at 2pm in the youth centre, which is run by Dorset Mental Health Forum as part of their Reach project. Members are also now starting to organise and lead outings.

"Members have huge amounts of wisdom and experience which they are able to use to give and receive support from each other.

"I think we have created something fantastic at Harmony, we have created something that works.

"Long may it continue and I think it will go from strength to strength."

Joanne also announced that a local charitable trust has pledged to give the group a substantial cash donation by Easter.

Members also heaped praise on the service with one saying: "It gives me structure, something to do and wellbeing. Me being able to help at Harmony gives me purpose."

Another described walking into Harmony like a big hug and that everyone understands each other.

One member said: "I wake up in the morning and think, 'Oh great, I have Harmony to go to'.

"It is something good and I think, 'Thank goodness Harmony is here'."

Harmony drop-in centre is open from 10am to 2pm on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at Bridport Youth Centre.

More floor at Huck Nets

IN order to meet increasing demand for their nets, Huck Nets based at Gore Cross Business Park in Bridport has increased their manufacturing capacity by installing a mezzanine floor in their factory.

As a result, Huck Nets now has approximately 250m² of extra space to serve the growing demand for their net products.

The new floor will house the production of the nets that they manufacture for the automotive industry.

The opening was celebrated with staff and the local suppliers that built the new floor for them. These included Bridport based Topspraks and Dave Ford carpentry.

Chairman Richard Connolly said: "I am very happy to say that Huck Nets continues to go from strength to strength.

"Since moving to Gore Cross in 1998, we have seen continual growth, and as a result have increased the production floor space by over 50 per cent.

"Occasions like this give me the opportunity to thank all Huck Group employees for their contribution, commitment and loyalty, which are important to ensuring that we continue to enjoy strong working relationships with both our customers and suppliers."

Cystic Fibrosis Trust brunch raises £2,000

THIS year's Cystic Fibrosis Trust brunch at the Olive Tree restaurant was a record breaker, raising more than £2,000 for the charity.

The annual event, organised by the team at the Olive Tree – Penelope and Steph Frigon and Simon Mazzei – raises funds through offering guests a cooked breakfast and a raffle, with prizes donated by local businesses including Alleyways Antiques, Beau hairdressing, Baboo Gelato, Steptoes, Celia Slater holistic therapist and Waterstones, for which organisers would like to thank them.

They would also like to thank Vertiworks for printing flyers for the event.

A cake sale was also run by Eva Luna, Penelope and Steph's daughter, and her friends on the Saturday after the brunch to raise more funds for the charity.

Penelope said: "We have beaten our annual best, reaching £2,500 of which every penny goes to the Cystic Fibrosis Trust.

"The money raised is by the Bridport community and it goes back to those in the community, both locally and nationally, who are affected by this horrible disease."

The Cystic Fibrosis Trust is dedicated to promoting excellence in research and clinical care, as well as providing practical support and advice to people with Cystic Fibrosis and their families.

ANTICIPATION FOR THE NEW LOOK AS WORK

The George Inn, Chideock is the perfect traditional thatched pub serving hearty homemade meals using all the best locally sourced ingredients and a bar full of drinks including the Palmer's Ales brewed just a stones-throw away down the road.

The Palmer's pub has stood in the heart of Chideock for centuries with parts of the building dating back over 300 years. With modernisations most recently being added in the 1990's, as you will find documented by a carving in one of their three stone fireplaces, The George Inn is now undergoing refurbishment.

Landlord Jamie Smith has just celebrated his first year at the pub after taking on the role at the age of just 25. He said, 'The first year has been a great platform to what will hopefully lead to many more years at the helm. The continued support of the George from the locals has been key. That sort of backing goes a long way into making that bustling pub atmosphere we all love.'

It also wouldn't have been possible without the hard work of my staff, family, friends and everyone within Palmers. To all I am extremely thankful.

The refurbishment itself is an exciting prospect for all involved with the pub, the work Palmers brewery have done with giving their establishments new identities to date has been of a very high standard. This will undoubtedly be the case here too and will ultimately add to the village.'

The Large Pub is made up of four separate spaces, which makes it great for party bookings and small bookings alike. With each area having its own separate feel, there is something for everyone. The large room to the front of the pub hosts big tables for the larger bookings and comfy seating in front of the fireplace for those wanting maybe a warm beverage away from the busy bar. With its own bar area, the snug, also at the front of the pub, is the smallest of the rooms. With another fireplace and cosy seating, this is the perfect room for a romantic meal or a quiet night out to the local. If you are looking for a livelier atmosphere, the main bar area is the hub of the entertainment with live music every Saturday night and the popular pub quiz every third Sunday of the month. This is where you will normally find 'the locals' sat at the bar, catching up with Jamie and his team! The final of the rooms, and the one undergoing the largest changes is in the previous extension towards the rear of the pub. With a completely new look, this room will open out onto the large Beer Garden for those warm Summer days so treasured by the floods of tourist.

The Beer Garden has that holiday feel and is a favourite spot with it housing heated seating areas and the stone oven that provides the cooking source for their famous Wood Fired Pizza night, every Thursday 6-9:30. This is a year round tradition where the customers get to create their own pizza from a choice of toppings. It is spiced up in the December weeks with their special Christmas themed options so pop down for your Christmas dinner pizza with all the trimmings!

Situated in the heart of the countryside, Chideock is a desired holiday destination for walkers being on the Jurassic coast where it meets its highest point, Golden Cap. It would seem silly not to be dog friendly with so many walkers bringing their four-legged companions, and what better way to embrace this than to have your own pub dog! Ramsay is Jamie's white German Sheppard Dog, he is very friendly and popular with the children, Locals and of course the local dogs who also frequent the pub. Being bought into the pub as a puppy, people regularly come back to the pub to see how he has grown. Dogs are welcome in all areas of the pub as long as they are kept on the lead and are well behaved.

The refurbishment is now entering its final week with most of the major aesthetic changes happening over the next few days. The grand re-opening will be on the 26th November so be sure to come down to meet Jamie and his team and check out the new look of the pub.

Wildlife trust needs help to fight hedgerow decline in Dorset

DORSET Wildlife Trust (DWT) has launched an urgent campaign to raise money to allow its winter hedgerow maintenance work to continue in Dorset.

Hedgerows provide habitat and food for up to 3,000 species of wildlife, including dormice, bats and hedgehogs.

The wildlife charity needs to raise £30,000 to ensure work such as 1,000 metres of hedge-laying, 3,200 metres of hedgerow trimming and 1,300 metres of protective hedge fencing can be carried out this winter.

DWT report that hedgerows have dramatically declined in the UK since the Second World War due to removal to increase field size and to make way for development. By the 1990s, 121,000km of hedgerows had been lost across the UK.

Rob Brunt, DWT's head of land management, said:

"Hedges are an iconic part of the Dorset landscape and they need to be managed properly if they are to continue to benefit wildlife."

"They are used as corridors for wildlife to travel through safely, provide shelter and homes, and are also an important source of food."

"Due to changes in our funding, we need to raise £30,000 to plant new hedgerows and maintain existing ones."

"Our concern is that already declining wildlife will suffer if we are unable to carry out this work."

The State of Nature report, published in September, revealed that many once common wildlife species are in decline, such as the hedgehog, which will benefit from good numbers of well-maintained hedgerows for protection, shelter and food.

Other endangered species of wildlife which depend on hedgerows include dormice, who need safe nesting and hibernating sites to survive the winter.

Around 1,500 insects, 65 birds and 20 mammals, most species of bat and the great crested newt all require a well-connected network of hedges to thrive in.

DWT also needs to plant new hedgerow trees to replace the trees which have been removed or severely damaged by disease.

It is predicted that in the next five to 15 years the recent ash dieback disease is expected to kill most ashes in Dorset.

Ash trees are Dorset's second most common hedgerow tree, which are vital to maintain the biodiversity of the hedgerow.

To find out more and to support DWT's winter hedgerow work, visit www.dorsetwildlifetrust.org.uk/hedgerows or call 01305 264620.

Rotary visits fire station

MEMBERS of Brit Valley Rotary Club visited Bridport Fire Station to find out more about what they do and how it works

MEMBERS of Brit Valley Rotary Club were treated to an insight into Bridport Fire Station when they visited the crew there last month.

They were impressed to learn that the station is only manned by part time staff who have to live or work within five minutes of the station so that when they receive an emergency message they can be there quickly.

They were shown various items of fire fighting equipment as well as tools needed at road traffic collisions.

The group had the chance to sit in one of the two fire engines the station has and to use the small fire hose.

The firefighters have a training session every week which includes first aid and each appliance carries medicines and equipment and the Rotarians were very impressed by the level of skills expected by the part time firefighters.

A spokesperson said: "We were particularly impressed that whilst the firefighters are making their way to the fire station, the head quarters of the fire service is automatically preloading satellite navigation devices installed in the engines with the location of the incident and the fastest route to get there."

"Our guides were watch manager Steve Pask and station commander Nic Courtice. The station commander is a full time firefighter at Poole and is part time like all his colleagues at Bridport Fire Station."

Brit Valley Rotary Club welcomes both men and women to serve the community and raise money for charities and good causes, local and international.

To find out more visit www.britvalley.rotary1200.org or contact the secretary Richard Jones on 01308 482602.

Community transport grants available

DORSET County Council is offering grants of up to £5,000 to support communities who want to set up their own transport scheme or for existing schemes.

The Community Transport Grant will fund costs associated with starting up and operating a scheme.

These include vehicle purchase, IT software that supports effective operation, marketing of schemes and training of staff or volunteers.

The grant is a match funding grant and applicants will need to demonstrate a clear outcome and show that at least 50 per cent of costs are met from other sources.

Cllr Peter Finney, cabinet member for environment, said:

"Organisations and local groups are being encouraged to apply for the community transport grants, to provide services for our residents who are unable to use public transport."

"We want to support voluntary sector organisations to deliver independent, sustainable services for the residents of Dorset."

Peter Smith, chairman of the Western Area Transport Action Group (WATAG), said: "Unfortunately these grants will be too late for most of the communities who have lost their services already, but WATAG will of course be pleased to support and assist groups who may wish to apply for these grants if other service provision ends and we will discuss this at our next public meeting on Thursday, November 24th at 6.30pm at Bridport WI Hall."

More details are available on the application form which can be obtained by emailing a.j.evans@dorsetcc.gov.uk

The deadline for applications is Friday, January 13th and the funding will be released in February.

Report shows Dorset Police is a 'good and efficient force'

DORSET Police has been graded 'good' overall at keeping people safe and reducing crime.

The report, by Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary (HMIC), is the first of three and follows inspections carried out between March and June this year.

These reports will make up the HMIC annual assessment of all 43 police forces in England and Wales.

Of the 43 forces, 33 were assessed as 'good', two as 'outstanding' and eight as 'requires improvement'.

The 'good' rating is an improvement on progress since the last report in 2015 when the force was deemed to 'require improvement' in this area.

Deputy Chief Constable (DCC) James Vaughan said: "I am pleased that HMIC have assessed Dorset Police as a good and efficient force."

"We have been faced with significant reductions in funding and this grading result is a testament to the hard work that has taken place, ensuring we can continue to provide a good service to the residents of Dorset."

"Protecting and safeguarding the most vulnerable in Dorset has always been a priority and will be a key focus for the force."

Dorset Police was found to have a comprehensive understanding of the full range of demands for its services and the force's evaluation of likely future demand is extensive, demonstrating Dorset Police is well prepared.

Priority areas for future expansion have been identified as child sexual exploitation, paedophile online investigation and cyber-crime.

Staffing levels are carefully monitored and have already increased in both domestic abuse and cyber crime teams.

Dorset Police was found to priorities its current resources well to meet demands for services and working well with partner agencies to manage demand more efficiently, with the reduction of people detained under section 136 of the Mental Health Act being singled out as a particular success story.

Colin Pipe, acting Dorset Police and Crime Commissioner, welcomed the HMIC's grading.

He said: "I am pleased to see Dorset Police has been recognised as 'good' at making best use of resources and planning for the future."

"As with all public sector organisations, the force is rightly scrutinised on its efficiency, and these positive findings by HMIC reflect the efforts made by officers and staff to best use the resources available to them to keep people safe and reduce crime."

Dorset Police are also part of other regional collaboration projects looking at issues such as organised crime, forensics, fraud and counter terrorism.

Overall, HMIC found Dorset Police to be a 'good' force and did not identify any causes for concern and made no specific recommendations.

Police weed appeal

POLICE in Bridport have launched an ironic appeal to reunite cannabis discovered in the town with its owner.

On Facebook, officers are asking if the owner could call them on 101. The post said: "Could the owner of this cannabis discovered in the Bridport area give us a ring on 101 to arrange collection. Don't worry, Dorset Police in Bridport have it for safe keeping. Or if you like to help them have it and know the owner - give us a call."

CHURCHGOERS and others in the community came together for the second Churches Together barn dance in Bridport United Church Hall on Saturday, October 29th. Harry Britten started the evening of dance and music with a blessing before Vince O'Farrell called the dances and Ruth Jenkins led the Reel Elastic Band – ten musicians brought together for the occasion. The evening raised £417 for local Charity Pathways to Care and finished with everyone singing what has become the anthem for this annual event, 'You Shall Go Out With Joy'.

Lidl sign refused

LIDL's application to erect an advertising pylon outside their store on St Andrews Road has been refused.

The supermarket chain submitted an application for a 7.5 metre high luminous totem pole at the entrance of the store.

It was refused by West Dorset District Council on the grounds of being visually intrusive and detracting from the setting of a neighbouring listed building.

OUR EVENING AT THE ORCHID SPA

by Melissa Hutchings, View From News Team

AFTER a long week at work, my colleagues and I felt like we needed some rest and relaxation. We had been invited to visit Orchid spa in Chideock, where owner Tanya Grafton treated us to an evening of pampering.

Tanya took us through the mystical orchard, which leads to the spa. This is not just a normal spa, as it is housed within three welcoming wooden chalets and provides everything you need for an enjoyable, relaxing and private experience.

After Tanya showed us where to change in the first chalet, we made ourselves at home in the hydrotherapy hot tub and sauna, which is spacious, warm and bubbly. This sort of therapy is used to tone up the body, stimulate digestion, circulation and the immune system and bring relief to aches and pains. Tanya opened the door for us, so we could feel the fresh breeze, while we enjoyed the wonderfully warm water and sipped on some delicious herbal tea.

Next we went into the luxury infrared sauna, where we spent a heavenly 20 minutes. The sauna is cosy and the peaceful easy listening music, adds to the already calming atmosphere, which will further enable you to unwind. The sauna offers numerous health benefits and helps to ease joint pain and stiffness as well as reducing wrinkles, cellulite and dead cells from the surface of the skin. Unlike others, the Orchid Spa sauna feels a lot more comfortable to sit in and enjoy, with no steam inhibiting a natural breathing pattern, which makes the experience much more pleasant and infinitely more calming.

Tanya offers massages and treatments within the third chalet, which can help to alleviate pain, improve range of motion and increase joint flexibility. The chalet has a divine ambience and is filled with a gratifyingly tranquil aroma.

I would highly recommend a visit to Orchid Spa. Tanya is an extremely welcoming and friendly host; she instantly uplifted our mood and made us feel de-stressed and relaxed. You can relax with friends, family or even go alone. Orchid Spa offers various different treatments and massages and can tailor your massage to suit your needs.

For any information please visit Tanya's website www.orchid-spa.co.uk or please call Tanya on 07580503928 or drop her an email: Tanya@orchid-spa.co.uk.

Orchid Spa

MY name is Tanya. I am a qualified Complimentary Body Massage Therapist and Holistic Beauty Therapist. I have been studying a body massage therapy in Moscow in 1991, been working as a massage therapist in hospitals in Belarus. In 1993 I have been enrolled to the additional 1 year intensive course of medicine and physiology at the University in Belarus. Since 2012, after being qualified as a massage therapist in England (ITEC level 3 in Body massage, Anatomy, Physiology, Pathology, Deep tissue massage, Neuromuscular technique, Soft tissue release, Beauty therapy etc), I have opened Orchid Spa with different types of Holistic treatments. I continue to attend a number of workshops of various health and massage courses. At the moment I am studying Reflexology in Devon Academy of Complementary Therapies. I am a registered member of Association of Holistic and Complimentary Practitioners.

"Stress is cited as one of the biggest causes of the majority of physical diseases. It affects the immune system, triggers inflammation, increases blood pressure and plays a key role in cardiovascular health problems, digestion disorders and insomnia – to name but a few.

Today's world has many diseases due to our lifestyles; I believe that assessing the overall health of a person, both physically and mentally is preventable by stopping the problem occurring in the first place.

There's no denying the power of holistic treatments. Regardless of the adjectives you assign to it (therapeutic, healing, pampering, rejuvenating, therapeutic) or the reasons you seek it out (stress relief, pain management), it can be a powerful ally in your health regimen.

Take control in your health and your life..." Orchid SPA is a sensory space for men and women to escape from the stress and pressures of everyday life. A caring and secluded place situated in the heart of peaceful Dorset, in Chideock, nr. Bridport. Designed to rejuvenate and renew, restore in both body and mind, which in turn makes us happier and more productive people. Orchid spa therapy is adapted to meet the needs of each and every client. We exist solely to serve you best and give you relaxing spa experience. No effort has been spared to ensure your absolute comfort and wellbeing.

We offer a variety of different treatments such as, Therapeutic Massage, Holistic facials, Deep Tissue Body Massage Therapy with the Neuromuscular/Soft tissue release technique, Japanese Hand massage, Thai foot massage. Facial acupressure, Hydrotherapy Hot Tub and infra-Redtherapy Sauna. Mobile service is available for Onsite seated massage, Japanese hand massage, Thai foot massage if you are housebound or immobile due to age or infirmity. 30 min Holistic treatment is £25.00, 30 min SPA treatment is £12.50 (shared price).

So are you tired and stressed? Haven't felt senses of wellbeing for a long time? Sleep problems? Headaches? Muscles, aches and tension? Or just need to boost up your energy and confidence level? Orchid SPA can be your escape. You'll feel rejuvenated and renewed, restored in both body and mind.

Monday/Tuesday afternoon and all Wednesday I will be working at West Dorset Chiropractic Center in East street, Bridport tel: 01308 423 322 We are working at the weekend and in the evening on request To book an appointment in Orchid Spa please call or text Tanya on 07580 503 928 or email: Tanya@orchid-spa.co.uk. Alexander Technique Dorchester Rushing headlong toward Christmas? Stiff neck? Shoulders up round your ears?

MEMBERS of the human race are often referred to as human beings (or human beans according to Roald Dahl's Big Friendly Giant*), and yet most of the time 21st century folk have become human doings – constantly busy and reacting to the ever present stimuli of phones, TV, advertising, and at this time of year the headlong rush to Christmas. It is no wonder that so many of us are complaining of stress and exhaustion.

We do not often allow ourselves time to just be.

The knock-on effect of all this doing is that our bodies and minds are in a state of tension most of the time, often resulting in a variety of aches and pains. During Alexander Technique lessons we begin to learn to notice the excess tension and to find out how to release it, allowing us to move more smoothly through life with greater poise and balance.

The more we are able to do this, the more we come to a state of being rather than doing.

"The Alexander Technique really works. I recommend it enthusiastically to anyone who has neck pains or back pain." - Roald Dahl

Rebecca offers one to one lessons in Dorchester and Piddlethreath, and will be running introductory workshops in January.

WHAT is EMDR? - EMDR is an acronym for 'Eye Movement Desensitisation and Reprocessing'. EMDR is a powerful psychological treatment method that was developed by an American clinical psychologist, Dr Francine Shapiro, in the 1980s. As a Senior Research Fellow at the Mental Research Institute, she published the first research data to support the benefits of the therapy in 1989. EMDR is a complex and powerful therapy. Therapists always have a background in mental health before undertaking training in EMDR. This research has been carefully reviewed by the National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence (NICE). For post traumatic stress

What is CBT? - CBT, or Cognitive Behaviour Therapy, is a talking therapy. It has been proved to help treat a wide range of emotional and physical health conditions in adults, young people and children. CBT looks at how we think about a situation and how this affects the way we act. In turn our actions can affect how we think and feel. The therapist and client work together in changing the client's behaviours, or their thinking patterns, or both of these.

CBT works - There is a great deal of research evidence to show that CBT works effectively in treating depression. This research has been carefully reviewed by the National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence (NICE). NICE provides independent, evidence-based guidance for the NHS on the most effective ways to treat disease and ill health. CBT is recommended by NICE for the treatment of anxiety disorders.

CRACKING CHRISTMAS COCKTAILS

CANDY CANE MARTINI

Ingredients:

50 ml berry-flavored vodka
 50 ml white Creme de Menthe
 25 ml peppermint schnapps
 Cranberry juice
 Ice
 Martini shaker
 Mini candy canes (for the rim and garnish)

Instructions:

Put small candy canes into a quart size freezer bag and crush them by using a rolling pin. Continue until there are small pieces for rim of glass. Combine the vodka, Creme de Menthe and peppermint schnapps in a martini shaker filled with ice, then shake. Let sit for a minute. While mixture is sitting, coat the rim of the glass with the crushed candy canes. To rim the glass pour candy cane pieces onto a shallow plate. Dip glass rim into water, followed by the sugar. Strain mixture from shaker into the martini glass. Top off with the cranberry juice. Garnish with a mini candy cane.

PERFECTLY PEPPERMINTY

Ingredients:

50 ml vodka
 50 ml white Creme de Menthe
 25 ml peppermint schnapps
 Carbonated water
 Ice
 Martini shaker
 Mini candy canes and/or festive red straws
 Red sugar (for the rim)

Instructions:

Combine the vodka, Creme de Menthe and peppermint schnapps in a martini shaker filled with ice, then shake. Let sit for a minute. While mixture is sitting, coat the rim of the glass with the red sugar. To rim the glass, pour sugar onto a shallow plate. Dip glass rim into water, followed by the sugar. Strain mixture from shaker into the martini glass. Top off with the carbonated water. Put in a festive red straw and/or garnish with a mini candy cane.

MARVELLOUS MINCE PIES

PAUL Hollywood prefers melt-in-the-mouth pastry for his fruity mince pies, so this recipe is nice and short

PREP: 45 MINS
 COOK: 15 MINS
 SERVES: 16

Ingredients:

1 large jar mincemeat (about 600g)
 2 satsumas, segmented
 1 apple, finely chopped
 zest 1 lemon
 little icing sugar, for dusting
 For the pastry
 375g plain flour
 260g unsalted butter, softened

125g caster sugar, plus extra for sprinkling
 1 large egg, plus 1 beaten egg for glazing

Instructions:

Place the flour and butter in a bowl and rub together to a crumb consistency. Add the sugar and the egg, and mix together. Tip out onto a lightly floured surface and fold until the pastry comes together, be careful not to over mix. Wrap the pastry in cling film and chill for 10 mins.

Scoop the mincemeat into a bowl and add the satsumas, apple and zest.

Heat oven to 220C/200C fan/gas 7. Roll out the pastry to 3mm thick. Using a round cutter (about 10cm), cut out 16 bases and place them into muffin trays. Put 1 1/2 tbsp mincemeat mixture into each. Brush the edge of each pie with a little beaten egg. Re-roll out the pastry to cut 7cm lids and press them on top to seal. Glaze with the rest of the egg, sprinkle with caster sugar, then make a small cut in the tops.

Bake mince pies for 15-20 mins until golden brown. Leave to cool before releasing them from the muffin trays and dusting with icing sugar. Serve.

Getting Ready For Christmas

LET THESE LOCAL SERVICES HELP YOU TO PLAN YOUR PERFECT FESTIVE PARTY

Symondsbury Estate Christmas Market

THE Symondsbury Estate Christmas Market is now in its fourth year, and this year takes place on Saturday 3rd December from 10am until 7pm.

Expect to find locally produced food and drink such as chutneys, cheeses, cider and wine on offer, as well as unique, vintage, upcycled and hand crafted items on sale.

This year, we will be introducing a "Secret

Present Service": a pop up shop will be in the Old Pottery to enable children to secretly buy affordable presents for their families. Adjacent to the secret shop will be Santa's grotto, where the big guy will be available for children to meet at specific times.

Symondsbury School will be entertaining visitors with carols along with the St Swithuns Brass Band. There will also be some interactive games to keep the little ones entertained. Symondsbury Kitchen will be providing refreshments throughout the day, and there will be outside food and drink outlets to include mulled wine, cider and burgers and a fully licensed bar in the Tithe Barn. A variety of retail and artisan units will also be open in Manor yard for some original Christmas gift ideas.

Jamming in Bucky Doo Square

Bridport Jams and Play Me Drums hit Bridport this Saturday - a free music event for young people of all ages to get involved in music

YOUNG person's music charity B Sharp will be setting up music instruments and playing in Bucky Doo Square this Saturday, November 19th between 10am - 12pm, sharing new music and songs written by the Bridport Jams group based at Bridport Youth Centre. There will also be a 'Play-Me' drum kit which everyone is welcome to play - all levels of experience welcome from beginners to advanced.

B Sharp young leaders will also be there to talk to anyone about music opportunities through B Sharp including their music leadership and trainee scheme.

Bridport Jams offer a weekly open access music making session for anyone aged 11-19 who has an interest in music and singing. Experience is not necessary but a keenness to play and work together is encouraged. The sessions are run by experienced Music Leaders Matt Hartnell and Jon Pogson, and supported by project support worker Sara Buchanan.

Bridport Jams started in April this year and they currently have 8 core members but as project support worker Sara Buchanan says, they are keen to invite more to join in on the fun,

"As support worker for Bridport Jams I have the privilege of working with young people from our town who are interested in making music. We have a wide variety of instruments which are available to use at our session every Monday evening, and it's a pleasure watching our members develop skills and increase confidence in what they do. Whether it be drums, keyboard, bass guitar, vocals or wind and string instruments, there's a space for everyone.

We encourage everyone to write lyrics and music and all of our work is original and belongs to our members. We would love to see more young people joining our sessions which are led by music leaders Matt Hartnell and Jon Pogson, who are also members of the popular band "Mr Jean".

We have plans for a fundraising gig in Spring 2017 and would love to see more young people aged 11-19 come forward; we know that music is an incredibly important part of life."

B Sharp Bridport Jams are held on every Monday evening during term time, 6.30-8pm at Bridport Youth Centre. To find out more, contact Sara on 07547 802718 or go to www.bsharp.uk.com.

The event this Saturday, November 19th is between 10am-12pm and is free to participate.

Whole Lotta love for Led

THE UK'S top tribute to Led Zeppelin return to the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Saturday, November 19th.

Whole Lotta Led played their first show at The Farrier's Arms in Bristol on January 7th 1996. Little did the band realise then that twenty years later they would still be together and performing all over the UK.

Throughout the many line up changes, Nick Ferris (guitar) and Geoff Hunt (bass) remain and both are amazed that what started as a hobby has become a full time career. The current line up is completed by Lee Pryor (vocals), Charlie Hart (drums) and Martin Weetman (keyboards/guitar).

Way back in 2001 Jimmy Page commented on their excellent reviews and wished the band all the best. Robert Plant and John Paul Jones are also aware of the band.

During 2016 the band will reach their 1,500th show confirming their position as the longest running, professional tribute to Led Zeppelin.

So if you are already a fan of the band or just curious to see why Whole Lotta Led are so admired and respected, come along and enjoy five professional musicians celebrating the incredibly diverse and exciting music of Led Zeppelin.

The show starts at 8pm on Saturday 19th, tickets are £14 full, £12 concessions in advance, or £16 on the door. For more details call 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

Heads Will Roll as dark comedy tour comes to East Devon

HEADS WILL ROLL is a dark epic comedy about delusion, vanity, and the corruption of power from the insatiably curious Told by an Idiot. Inspired by the myth of El Dorado - the fantastical city where rivers ran with gold - Heads Will Roll explores the quests we carry throughout our lives, even if our goals are out of reach.

A golden man wades into a lake and disappears, searching for forgiveness.

A BBCTV executive flushes money down the toilet in her desperate quest for soap opera ratings.

A Spanish conquistador crashes through the jungle convinced he will find a city where rivers run with gold.

Heads Will Roll draws from a variety of sources including the extraordinary films of Herzog, the magic of Shakespeare's late plays, and one particularly doomed BBC soap opera.

Featuring an international, all-female cast, the production premieres at Theatre Royal Plymouth before dates at Birmingham Rep, Liverpool Everyman, and a rural tour connecting Told by an Idiot with audiences in small-scale venues and village halls across Devon and Dorset.

"I was excited by the potential of the myth of El Dorado and the elements of folly and failure this fateful quest entailed. It is proving particularly rewarding to work with an all-female company to explore such typically male themes of pride and hubris. We are thrilled to be taking the show on our first rural tour in recent years, to connect directly with audiences in such intimate settings, and to share our work with people that may not usually have the opportunity to see it."

Paul Hunter, Told by an Idiot's co-Founder/Artistic Director and Director of Heads Will Roll.

The show's cast is Mercé Ribot and Patricia Rodriguez (who met on a Told by an Idiot workshop and went on to form Little Soldier, acclaimed for its recent production of Don Quixote), performer and composer Alicia Martel, one of Barcelona's most unique musicians (who performed in Told by an Idiot's Get Happy at the Barbican, 2015) and Colombian-born performer and choreographer Andrea Pelaez. Paul Hunter directs, assisted by Puppetry Consultant and Assistant Director Almudena Adalia (founder of puppetry company Around the Glove). Design is by Associate Idiot, Michael Vale.

Heads Will Roll continues Told by an Idiot's relationship with Theatre Royal Plymouth following co-productions My Perfect Mind, And the Horse You Rode in On and The Fahrenheit Twins.

Heads Will Roll comes to Bay Theatre, Weymouth (£8-£11) on November 18th, The Marine Theatre in Lyme Regis (£12/£10) on November 23rd, Bridport Arts Centre (£12/£10) on November 25th, West Stafford Village Hall (£10/£7/£28) on November 26th, and Toller Porcorum Village Hall (£9/£6/£25) on November 27th.

Vintage Cabaret and Songs to make you Smile

LILI LA SCALA is a one-of-a-kind performer with a cascade of vintage glamour and charm in her arsenal.

It's easy to see why this little Diva with the big voice, nicknamed the Songbird of Trafalgar Square, has become a sell-out favourite worldwide. Lili's latest offering, the award-winning Songs To Make You Smile is an enthralling, upbeat medley of wartime classics, show tunes and decidedly bright-and-breezy numbers from yesteryear bound to put a spring in your step.

A carefully selected heartwarming set of songs live up to the show title, invoking smiles of recognition for numbers like Makin' Whoopee and a beautiful rendition of Over The Rainbow. Interspersed are lesser-known ditties such as a comic songs about oysters wishing for a taste of the high life and lambs professing their love for each other no matter whose table they end up!

From American composers Irving Berlin and Cole Porter to British legends Gracie Fields and Vera Lynn, and with a splash of George Formby thrown in for good measure, Lili offers traditional tunes delivered with cabaret sass. Her huge voice and equally big personality won't fail to leave you cheered this winter.

Lili La Scala plays live at Broadwind-sor Comrades Hall on Friday, December 9th (01308867644), and Martinstown Village Hall on Sunday, December 11th at 7.30pm (01305 889963).

Cinema by the sea

DO YOU love film? Do you miss the Regent Cinema after the fire? Do not despair. Following the tragic fire at the Regent Cinema this March, the Marine Theatre in collaboration with Scott Cinema and the Lyme Regis Film Society have stepped in to bridge the gap and bring film to the community of Lyme Regis.

Marine Cinema at the Marine Theatre offers a weekly programme of popular new films to the big screen. What better way to escape the Winter winds than to meet friends with a cozy film and steaming cup of coffee?

The Marine Cinema programme includes all of the same favourite films as the Scott Cinema Silver Screen for our Thursday mornings screenings (open to all) and top picks in a variety of genres Thursday daytime and evening including family screenings in the holidays.

Plus there will be hot drinks, smoothies and popcorn on sale from Dottie's Kitchen in the Marine during all screenings and the bar open an hour before all evening screenings.

The Marine Theatre has brand new cinema equipment including a projector and fabulous 15ft screen kindly donated by the Lyme Regis Film Society, who show their films at the theatre.

You can buy tickets for our films on the door half an hour before each screening.

The next screening is Dad's Army, being shown at 11am this Thursday, November 17th.

Also coming up; Henry V (cert 12A) on Thursday, November 24th 11am; Neon Demon (cert 18) on Thursday, November 24th, 7.30pm; Julieta (cert 15) on Thursday, December 1st at 11am.

Motörhead guitarist Phil Campbell to play Gateway gig

French opera, live theatre and comedy film also coming-up at The Gateway

MOTÖRHEAD guitarist Phil Campbell and his band The Bastard Sons, supported by Heavy Oil, will play live at The Gateway, Seaton on Saturday, November 26th at 7.30pm.

Campbell has teamed up with his sons Todd, Dane and Tyla, along with vocalist Neil Starr, for the new project. In a recent interview, Phil talked about how the band was formed. "We had a big party for Todd's birthday a few years ago and we played a few cover songs and had a jam," Campbell recalls. "It sounded so good we decided to start a band!"

A typical set is full of classic Motörhead songs infused with covers of some of Phil's favourite bands, including Black Sabbath and the Rolling Stones, and the classic 'Nutbush City Limits'.

Phil Campbell has enjoyed various accolades throughout his career, including four Grammy nominations and one Grammy win (in 2005), two Golden God awards from Metal Hammer magazine, a Kerrang! award, an official proclamation from the City of Los Angeles in August 2015.

Support for the evening comes from Heavy Oil; a new all-original, high-energy hard rock trio based in the Midlands and are currently.

CHANGING pace on Saturday, December 10th, the Gateway will be showing a live stream of L'Armour De Lair, performed by New York MET Opera Live. Doors open at 5.30pm, with the performance from 5.55pm.

Finnish composer Kaija Saariaho's breakthrough opera was described by the New York Times as "transfixing...a lushly beautiful score".

Commissioned by the Salzburg Festival, where it was first seen in 2000, it will now finally have its Metropolitan Opera premiere in a dazzling new production by Robert Lepage, featuring glimmering ribbons of LED lights that extend across the length of the stage and over the orchestra pit.

Eric Owens is the knight on a quest of love and Susanna Phillips is his lover on the other side of the sea. Conductor Susanna Mälki makes her Met debut. Sung in French with English subtitles.

FOLLOWING their hit run on Broadway, Ian McKellen and Patrick Stewart return to the West End stage in Harold Pinter's No Man's Land, broadcast live to the Gateway from Wyndham's Theatre, London.

One summer's evening, two ageing writers, Hirst and Spooner, meet in a Hampstead pub and continue their drinking into the night at Hirst's stately house nearby. As the pair become increasingly inebriated, and their stories increasingly unbelievable, the lively conversation soon turns into a revealing power game, further complicated by the return home of two sinister younger men. Also starring Owen Teale and Damien Molony, don't miss this glorious revival of Pinter's comic classic. The broadcast will be followed by an exclusive Q&A with the cast and director Sean Mathias.

The performance of No Man's Land will be shown on Friday, December 16th. Doors open 6.30pm, with the performance starting 7pm.

THE GATEWAY will also be hosting a 'film and picnic night', showing the hilarious Absolutely Fabulous film.

Bring your own picnic, or just come and enjoy the film Absolutely Fabulous, with Jennifer Saunders and Joanna Lumley as they bring the fun and madness of the TV series to the big screen.

Absolutely Fabulous will be shown on Thursday, December 8th at 6.30pm. Tickets are £5.

Instructions for American Servicemen in Britain

DORCHESTER ARTS will present 'Instructions for American Servicemen in Britain', a WW2-era comedy that lovingly pokes fun at British eccentricities and the American troops who tried to understand them, next Wednesday, November 23rd

Set in 1942 when the first US servicemen are arriving in England. The Americans see the Brits as a strange race; the locals speak a strange dialect, boil all their food, and talk endlessly about the weather. Get ready to judge for yourself in a night of joyous laughter and downright silliness as a crack team of experts attempt to explain the rules of British life in this hilarious show for all ages.

'Instructions for American Servicemen in Britain' was a pamphlet issued in 1942 by the American War Office. It aimed to prepare GIs for the strange country that awaited them, and defuse Nazi propaganda attempts to split the allies apart. It included helpful hints such as: "The British don't know how to make a good cup of coffee. You don't know how to make a good cup of tea. It's an even swap." They have been described as an 'Ordnance survey map' of Britain's psyche, and since being re-published in 2005, have become a treasured reminder of both the country's finest hour, and its strangest eccentricities.

The show is based around a training session for newly arrived GIs and will appeal to fans of classic sitcoms like 'Dad's Army', history buffs, families, and anyone looking for a fun night out.

Inspired by this snapshot of wartime Britain, the theatre company Fol Espoir has joined forces with sketch-comedy trio The Real MacGuffins (whose credits include 'Miranda', Radio 4's 'Sketchorama' and 'Lee Nelson's Well Funny People') to create a joyous night of nostalgic and whimsical entertainment.

The show's director John Walton said: "I stumbled upon the Instructions in Waterstone's a few years ago, and I've been wanting to make a show based on them ever since. They're such an endearing and loving snapshot of the country at a unique moment in its history. At the same time, they just seemed perfect for comic exploration."

The show comes to Dorchester Arts at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Wednesday, November 23rd at 8pm.

For more details and to book visit the website at www.dorchesterarts.org.uk or call 01305 266926.

Jack and the Least Gal

Joseph Sobol tours internationally as a storyteller, composer and virtuoso musician. He is also a Professor of Folklore at East Tennessee State University, teaching on the graduate storytelling programme. Whilst in the UK this month, he is coming to Bridport Story Café with his latest collection of stories and songs: Jack and the Least Gal.

Enter the phantasmagorical world of Jack, the Appalachian wonder tale hero, and his female counterpart the Youngest Daughter (Least Gal), in this virtuoso modern telling of the Hero and Heroine's Journey, with traditional and original songs and tunes.

"Joseph Sobol employs his extraordinary master both of music and of the spoken word to breathe new life into these tales ... A must-see show for fans of storytelling and traditional music alike" (Caren Neile, Producer, Caldwell Theatre).

The Story Café changes time, date and venue this month. The evening will start at 8pm on Saturday, November 26th and will be at the welcoming location of Watercleaves (next door to Washingpool Farm Shop). Tickets £8 on the door. For any further information, please contact Christine Bell on 01308 420193.

A perfect way to spend an Autumn afternoon

AS THE days draw in, an afternoon of beautiful music followed by tea and home-made cake must be one of the more enjoyable experiences. The Bridport Chamber Orchestra is delighted to welcome Nick Thomas, pictured with his wife Elaine who will be accompanying him on the harpsichord, as solo flautist for a concert on Sunday, November 20th, at St Swithun's Church in Bridport at 3pm.

Nick and Elaine are both music teachers in the Taunton area. Nick is a multi instrumentalist who mainly plays the flute, piano and accordion. He enjoys performing a wide variety of music from classical to folk, and regularly performs with Alex Ennis, lead violinist for the BCO, in the band Hobson's Choice. He is enjoying a busy time as MD for Taunton Deane Male Voice Choir, and as accompanist for Elaine's Ladies choir, the New Horizon Singers.

Nick says: "It is a pleasure to be asked to join the Bridport Chamber Orchestra for the Pergolesi Concerto in G and John Rutter's Suite Antique, a piece specifically for Flute and Harpsichord." The concert also includes works by Albinoni, Warlock, Mendelssohn and Turina. Tickets are £10 on the door or from Bridport Music in advance.

You'll be Pleased at these tunes

BRIDPORT Arts Centre is presenting a night of Club Classics with Ministry of Sound DJ Jon Pleased Wimmin.

Jon Cooper AKA Jon Pleased Wimmin is a UK DJ who rose to fame in the club world during the 1990s, where his flamboyant cross dressing and stylish presence became a force to be reckoned with.

After cutting his teeth as a clubber at seminal late 80s London clubs such as Taboo, Sacrosanct and the Mud Club, Jon's career on the other side of the decks started in 1991. His three piece Cabaret act 'The Pleased Wimmin' were spotted performing at Kinky Gerlinky by Danny Rampling who immediately invited them to come and be dancers at his club Glam at the Milk Bar.

In the early 90s he was fixture at clubs nationwide such as Puschka, Venus, Fabric, Back To Basics, Miss Moneypennies, Slam, Pacha, Space, The Pod, Ministry of Sound, Cream and Renaissance amongst many others.

Overseas beckoned and by the end of the 1990s Jon had played pretty much everywhere from Ibiza, Buenos Aires, Japan, South America, Australia, South Africa, Singapore and more alongside the whole of Europe.

Marketing Manager Lisa Wilcock said: "Jon is legendary with clubbers who have been to his events, luckily he had availability to play a set at the Arts Centre. So put your hands in the air and get ready for an exceptional night."

Jon Pleased Wimmin comes to Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, November 26th, 8pm-1am. Tickets are £10, available by calling 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com.

Loders Art Group's third exhibition

MEMBERS of Loders Art Group are holding their third Exhibition of Art to take place at Loders Village Hall on Saturday, November 19th 2016 from 11am to 2pm.

Loders Art Group is a thriving group of amateur artists of around twenty-two members, who have been meeting weekly as a group in Loders since 2012. We are fortunate to have the skills of many excellent visiting Tutors each term and they all inspire us to improve.

Many of the members have had a good degree of success this year, with three members winning several awards at the Melpash Show 2016.

Anita Tattershall won the "Michael Chappell Award" for the total number of aggregated marks for works submitted by winning a first place, a second and two third places. Jennifer Tett won two second places and two highly commended awards, and Margaret Lewis won the "Pat Bayliff Silver Salver" for the Outstanding Art Exhibit in show.

The group is also pleased that members of the Loders History Group will be joining them on Saturday with a comprehensive display of Maps, Photographs and Historical Documents. This should provide an excellent opportunity for locals and visitors alike to get a feel of Loders Village through the ages.

They will be serving Tea, Coffee and light lunchtime refreshments with proceeds to Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance.

Inside The Red Shed

'THE RED SHED' is the third part of our favourite campaigning comic's theatrical trilogy, which began with the multi award winning, critically acclaimed Bravo Figaro and Cuckooed, and concludes in yet another nationwide tour, as Mark returns to the place where it all began - the Red Shed, a labour club in Wakefield - to celebrate the club's 50th birthday.

The Shed, home to Mark's first public performances, is also a home to dissent, to organising and to progressive politics, and so it was here that Mark's true political prowess began. An iconic and vital place for its patrons, this is where the true meaning of solidarity is found and where you can be part of history and part of the struggle. A south London lad, born to a Thatcherite world of self-employed builders, labourers and tradesmen like his father where the individual is key, Wakefield's alien traditional labour community awoke a new determination in Mark and changed his life forever.

Interviewing old friends and comrades, Mark pieces together the club's history and works alongside it to campaign with some of the poorest workers in the country. It is the story of the battle for hope and the survival of a community. It is a tale of strikes, fights, dinner ladies, crap beer, good beer, burger slingers, pickets, placards, commies, friendship, love, history, dreams and, above all, remembering. Part theatre, part stand up, part journalism, part activism, Mark realises his obsession with community and struggle.

With every one of his previous solo shows selling out their Edinburgh runs, snapping up awards and nominations and becoming Radio 4 series, the Fringe would not be the same without this 'alleged comedian's' explorations. He's won a Herald Angel award, the Amnesty International Freedom of Expression award and The Red Shed this year won him his third Scotsman Fringe First. He's stopped arms deals, created a manifesto and brought the winning policy to parliament, walked the entire length of the Israeli wall in the West Bank, filmed his own Channel 4 series, written books, won more awards, held Guinness World Records, investigated everything from Coca-Cola to inheritance tax avoidance, given evidence to Parliamentary Select Committees, stopped multinational infrastructure deals, been arrested on numerous occasions and founded a new definition for the word 'Fareage'.

Mark Thomas brings his tour of 'The Red Shed' to Bridport Arts Centre on Wednesday, November 30th. For more details call 01308 424204 or visit the website at www.bridport-arts.com

Jeremy Hardy Live in Bridport

JEREMY HARDY is in his 4th decade as a stand-up this year. That's a more dramatic way of saying he started 32 years ago and, without a lottery win, probably has at least another 32 years to go. In 2014, the tenth series of Jeremy Hardy Speaks to the Nation was broadcast on Radio 4. He is also well known for his appearances on The News Quiz and I'm Sorry I Haven't a Clue. Indeed, Alan Bennett recently said he likes him "but he's only on the radio".

However, Jeremy isn't only on the radio, his television credits include: Jack Dee's Election Helpdesk (BBC2), QI (BBC1), Mock The Week (BBC2), Grumpy Old Men (BBC1), Back In The Day (BBC2), Not Tonight With John Sergeant (BBC2).

He is also on the road all year round and has never stopped doing live shows since 1984. After briefly hibernating in the winter, he's back out on the road in 2016.

Jeremy Hardy comes to Bridport Arts Centre next Thursday, November 24th at 8pm. For more details and to book call 01308 424204 or visit www.bridport-arts.com.

MAYFAIR
TOWN & COUNTRY

2 THE ROCKS, CATTISTOCK - £189,950

2 The Rocks, comes to the market with Mayfair Town & Country in Beaminster, having been completely refurbished by the current owners. Harriet Stacy-Marks, Principal of Mayfair Town & Country comments that Cattistock is a highly sought after West Dorset Village due to the excellent day to day amenities which serve the local people. The Fox & Hounds pub serves excellent food and always has a great friendly atmosphere. The village store stocks local produce and groceries as well as the new Cattistock Tea Room and Post Office. The well renowned Cattistock Cricket Club boasts one of the prettiest and well-kept pitches in the area; a game offers a lovely excuse to enjoy the village on a sunny Sunday afternoon. We are delighted to be marketing 2 The Rocks, which benefits from a newly fitted eat-in kitchen, a separate sitting room with a feature fireplace, 2 double bedrooms and shower room. Parking is found on the street outside the cottage. We highly recommend a viewing of this charming property for those wanting to be part of a thriving community. Contact Harriet Stacy-Marks on 01308 862606

4 GREENS CROSS DRIVE, BEAMINSTER - £480,000

We are delighted to market this beautifully presented, detached property boasting wonderful far-reaching countryside views to both the front and rear aspects. Situated within a small, private cul de sac of individual properties, within walking distance of Beaminster Square. With gardens that sweep around the entire property giving a lovely private outlook. Built in the 1950's and further extended in 2005, the house is exceptionally presented and benefits from a recently installed kitchen-breakfast room, master bedroom with ensuite shower room and three further double bedrooms. Outside there is a formal garden, terrace, potting area, vegetable plot, large driveway with ample parking and a 1 1/2 berth garage. This Property benefits from having local amenities just half a miles away. Internal viewings are highly recommended. Please contact Mayfair Town & Country on 01308 862606.

SOMERSET LAND AND PROPERTY AUCTIONS NOVEMBER AUCTION REPORT

THURSDAY 3RD NOVEMBER - OAKTREE ARENA, HIGHBRIDGE

SOMERSET Land and Property Auctions held their final auction of 2016 on Thursday 3rd November at The Oak Tree Arena, Highbridge, which included two properties going under the gavel with Mayfair Town & Country estate agents.

Since the last Land and Property Auction the effects of Brexit have been felt in the property market, and it was always going to be interesting to see how this reflected in terms of prices achieved on the night. To counter the effects of Brexit there had been an announcement that Hinckley Point C was to go ahead near Bridgwater, with up to 8,000 contractors coming into a 30-mile area radius of Bridgwater over the next 10 years. Investors were on notice that the Somerset, Dorset and Bristol areas generally could become an excellent investment.

Interest in Hinckley was to the fore as Auctioneer Ian Walker invited bidding with the first two lots being located in Bridgwater. Considerable interest had been shown in Rosebery Avenue, Bridgwater, Lot 1, a two-bedroom terraced house. Bidding was brisk and the gavel fell at £99,500. Lot 2 on the outskirts of Bridgwater at Somerset Bridge, a three bedroom end terraced property, then went under the hammer with £128,000 being achieved. Lot 3 entered by Mayfair Town and Country's Crewkerne office failed to reach its reserve but has, since the auction, received offers and Chris White at Mayfair is hopeful of tying up a sale. A similar story with Lot 4, a beautiful thatched-roofed property at Stoke Abbott, Beaminster, West Dorset set in 3.5 acres of land again failing to reach the reserve on the night having had a fairly short period of auction marketing. However, that marketing has produced genuine interest and it is hoped by Mayfair's Beaminster office that a sale will result shortly. Lot 5, Bourneville Road, Weston-super-Mare, received a very high level of interest prior to auction and a sale had been introduced and exchanged prior to the night at a very good figure.

Moving onto the land, 9.47 acres of land at Chedzoy once again had a sale agreed on it prior to the auction evening whilst 4.62 acres at West-on-onyland (£27,000), 4.8 acres in the same location (£29,500) and 6.57 acres of tenanted land (£14,000) all sold on the night. Two blocks of land at Fordgate, Bridgwater, remained unsold despite interest prior to the auction and all enquiries should be directed to Ian Walker or William Gilbert at Tamlyns, Bridgwater, on 01278 454500.

Overall, a successful night with 7 of the 11 Lots sold either prior to or on the auction night. The other land and properties have also generated interest and we are confident of agreeing sales moving forward.

Dates for auctions in 2017 will be announced shortly, but in the meantime if you have a property or land that you think may be suitable for auction, please your local Mayfair office: Beaminster (01308 862606), Crewkerne (01460 78900), or Dorchester (01305 269200).

Somerset Land and Property Auctions incorporate a select group of agents covering the areas of Bristol, Somerset and West Dorset.

Vauxhall's scrappage scheme offers up to £2,000 towards a new car

VAUXHALL'S popular Scrappage Allowance Scheme is back, offering customers up to £2,000 (including VAT) towards a new Vauxhall when they trade-in their car for scrappage.

To make the cost of a new car more affordable, customers can combine the Scrappage Allowance with one of Vauxhall's great finance offers including Flexible Personal Contract Purchase Plans (PCP). Available on a selection of Vauxhall models, the finance offers give low monthly payments and all the flexibility that PCP finance allows at the end of the chosen term.

The scrappage scheme will be running from the 15th November 2016, and is eligible on cars ordered and registered before 31st December 2016. Cars being traded-in must be registered to the customer at least 90 days prior to the order date of the new vehicle. If choosing a new Astra, Mokka, Mokka X, GTC, new Zafira Tourer, Insignia or Cascada model, customers will receive £2,000 (including VAT) towards the cost of their new car.

"We are pleased to welcome back our Scrappage Allowance Scheme, helping customers to fund their new car with up to £2,000 for their old model," commented Leon Caruso, Vauxhall's Retail Sales Director. "Not only can customers potentially receive more for their outgoing model, but they can also use this in conjunction with some of Vauxhall's great finance offers, making their new Vauxhall even more affordable."

As part of the scheme, vehicles must be traded-in to be scrapped in order to be eligible for the allowance. Any car, with a maximum of nine seats, can be traded in. The VIVA, ADAM JAM, Corsa Sting, Corsa Sting R and Corsa Diamond are not eligible for the Scrappage Allowance.

Taking our responsibility for our products seriously, the previous scrappage campaign, which ran last year, led to the scrapping of approaching 15,000 older, more polluting vehicles. This increased the volume of scrap cars to enable the industry to meet its 95 per cent recovery target.

However, Vauxhall's scrappage programme is not designed to rid the world of classic cars. As a result, Autogreen, Vauxhall's recycling partner, will identify any cars manufactured prior to 1991 that are presented through the scheme and inform Vauxhall's Luton HQ. Relevant owners' clubs will then be notified, giving them the opportunity to purchase parts through the Authorised Treatment Facility.

"Vauxhall has immense respect for the UK's classic car groups, irrespective of what make or model they support," said Simon Hucknall, PR Manager for Vauxhall Product & Heritage. "The Scrapage Allowance is designed to capture vehicles that are beyond economical repair, and given the low value of scrap metal, recycling of parts is vital to the scheme's viability. We're also confident that the number of genuine classics over 25 years old presented to the scheme will be minimal, especially given the steady rise in value of even the most mainstream collectors' cars in recent years. But if we do see any, our 'safety-net' will ensure that classic car owners and clubs will benefit."

Mercedes-Benz partners with Chargemaster to provide hassle-free home charging

MERCEDES-BENZ UK has partnered with Chargemaster, the UK's largest provider of EV charging infrastructure, to offer customers an easy home charging solution for their Mercedes-Benz or smart electric plug-in vehicle.

Mercedes-Benz currently offers four electric hybrid models in the UK: the C 350 e, E 350 e, GLE 500 e and S 500 e, as well as the all-electric B 250 e. Next year fully electric versions of the latest smart fortwo, fortwo cabriolet and forfour models will also join the line-up. It's all part of an increasing focus on electric mobility - at the Paris motor show in September Mercedes-Benz announced the launch of EQ, a new brand which will focus solely on electric vehicles and products.

Mercedes-Benz and smart customers will have the choice of installing either a tethered or non-tethered, 3.6kW or 7kW Chargemaster Homecharge unit at their home for quick and convenient charging. Customers simply complete an online registration form and will then be contacted by the dedicated Mercedes-Benz Homecharge team. The team will assess the customer's property for suitability of the product and will advise on all elements of installation and maintenance.

Chargemaster's own specialist engineers aim to complete nationwide trouble-free installations within two weeks of an order being placed.

Prices start from £279 for the 3.6kW Homecharge unit and just £354 for the 7.0kW version, which charges three times faster than a normal 13A socket. Customers benefit from £500 of OLEV funding which Chargemaster applies for on their behalf (with the exception of the GLE 500 e). All units are covered by a three-year warranty.

As well as convenient home charging, Mercedes-Benz and smart customers will also benefit from six months' free access to Chargemaster's "Polar Network" when they sign up with Homecharge, making charging just as convenient when away at home. "Polar Network" is the UK's largest network of public charging points with over 5,000 locations nationwide.

For more information, customers can contact their local Mercedes-Benz retailer, or visit: www.mercedes-benz.co.uk

Volkswagen Golf - The update

Major update for the most successful Volkswagen ever

VOLKSWAGEN is digitalising the most successful model in the Group's history – the Golf – with a major update. The main focus of the 2017 model year is – alongside new engines, keener design and new assistance systems – a completely new generation of infotainment systems. As a world first in the compact class, the top-of-the-range "Discover Pro" system can be operated by gesture control. With its 9.2-inch screen it forms a conceptual and visual entity with the Active Info Display, which is also new to the Golf. In parallel to this, the range of online services and apps has also been enlarged. The update to the Golf, of which over 33 million have been sold to date, also reflects a new standard for assistance systems in the compact class: technologies such as City Emergency Braking with new Pedestrian Monitoring function, the new Traffic Jam Assist (partially automated driving at speeds of up to 60 km/h) and Emergency Assist, which is also new in this segment, significantly improve safety.

New TSI engines and a new 7-speed DSG

The progressive digitalisation is accompanied by the enhanced EA211 TSI engine family. The new Golf initially sees the debut of the new turbocharged petrol engine, the "1.5 TSI Evo" – a 110 kW/150 PS four-cylinder turbo with Active Cylinder Management (ACT). This will be followed by a BlueMotion version producing 96 kW/130 PS. Volkswagen has also boosted the performance of the Golf GTI, the new version of which will produce 169 kW/230 PS and 180 kW/245 PS (GTI Performance) and a new 7-speed DSG (dual clutch gearbox) will gradually replace the 6-speed DSG as a high-efficiency gearbox for the Golf.

Powerful, more refined design and new LED lights

Volkswagen presents the update to the two- and four-door Golf, the Golf Variant and the sporty Golf GTI and Golf GTE at Volkswagen's headquarters in Wolfsburg. The more refined design of all new versions of the Golf makes a more powerful impression than ever before. The modifications include new bumpers at the front and rear, new halogen headlights with LED daytime running lights, new full LED headlights instead of xenon headlights, new front wings, new full LED tail lights – which come as standard for every version of the Golf – as well as new wheels and colours, and the interior of the 2017 model year Golf is finished off with refined new decorative trims and fabrics. The range of equipment versions of the Golf remains unchanged.

THINK of an exciting Honda two seater with all-wheel-drive and most car fans will instantly think of the thrilling NSX supercar.

But now there is a new open-top Honda two seater that's even be faster than the mighty NSX – as long as the race is off the road...

The new Pioneer is Honda's first Side-by-Side (SxS) utility vehicle, designed to be more practical than a quad bike and more manageable than a traditional full size 4x4 vehicle.

Employing Honda's acclaimed ATV technology and featuring a powerful and efficient 700cc engine, the supremely capable Pioneer will be available as either a two or four-seater.

The Pioneer will open up a world of possibility for both business and leisure users who need an ATV that will take them to even the most hard to reach places.

What's more its launch will help commercial operators meet the requirements of the European Two Man Working Directive, where at least two people are required to be present when working in dangerous conditions, without needing two vehicles.

The launch of the Pioneer will cement the brand's status as the undisputed market leader in the ATV sector. Honda accounts for more than 50% of all UK ATV sales.

Steve Morris, Head of Honda (UK), said:

"The Pioneer is a fantastic vehicle that will strengthen Honda's ATV offering significantly. By adding a choice of SxS options to our range, we will be able to build on our best-in-industry reputation and the long-standing customer relationships we have developed through our nationwide network of authorised dealers."

He added: "The Pioneer also sets a new benchmark for a SxS ATV. Our engineers and designers have developed it from the wheels up with the same attention to detail they would any Honda vehicle."

"This means users will benefit from new levels of comfort, refinement, agility and handling as well as the superior performance and aftersales care for which Honda is known."

More information about the Honda Pioneer will be revealed through HondaUKPower channels on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram.

The Devon & Exeter and Perry Street Leagues WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

As they stand

Spot kick drama as Rainbows stay top

Lyme Regis toppled at the Fort - Uplyme on top in derby - Hussey hits four as leaders Pymore fightback

DORSET INTERMEDIATE CUP (R2)
MAIDEN NEWTON & CATTISTOCK 2
LYME REGIS RESERVES 4
Lyme Regis Reserves recovered from a dozy opening five minutes when they conceded twice to deservedly set up a quarter-final at AFC Blandford.
The nightmare start began with some sleepy marking allowing the hosts the strike with just 90 seconds on the clock. And things got worse as poor marking from a free kick saw the deficit doubled.
But, to their credit, the Seasiders rolled their sleeves up and set about getting back into the game.
Fred Parsons nodded home a header in the 15th minute but this was disallowed for offside.
Parsons, who was to have an eventful match, then received a cut above his right eye after a clash of heads and was hastily patched up and was able to continue.
And it was Parsons who pulled one back slotting home at the far post in the 25th minute before equalising with a flick header that flashed into the net five minutes before half time.
Lyme took the lead in the 50th minute when left back Ally Rattenbury, who had a hand in three of the goals, crossed to the far post to skipper Alex Rowe who struck a sweet half-volley back across the six-yard box and into the far corner.
The scoring was completed on the hour when another Rattenbury cross found Sam Bevis whose header looped over the home keeper and into the net.
A delighted Lyme manager Gerard Hitchcock said: "We were awful in the minute when Cody Bowditch skipped down the left flank and crossed just beyond the outstretched leg of centre-forward Rhys Hayter.
Soon after teenager Bowditch was narrowly wide with a low shot having been set clear by a clever through ball from Chris Herbst.
But it as the Students who struck first in the 21st minute when Max Foster pounced on incisive pass and easily rounded keeper Will Meech before rolling the ball home.
The goal shook the Seasiders who lost their head of steam temporarily. The closest they came in the first half was when former Bridport skipper Darren Lock got on the end of a Herbst corner and clipped the crossbar with a fine header.
Both teams look set for the interval when Uni struck again in the dying seconds. A break down the right wing eventually left Meech helpless on the corner of his six-yard box as the ball was dinked over his head to Matt Jacka who headed home.
Townsend and coaches Mark Lock and Steve Crabb then set about rousing the deflated Seasiders in the half time break, and they did a great job as Lyme came out all guns blazing.
Herbst cut in from the right wing but keeper Dan Clarke, who was to have a busy time of it, was equal to his low shot.
At the other end a Meech slip almost let the visitors in again, but he was reprieved when a shot from the edge of the box drifted wide.
But the bulk of the action was at the clubhouse end and Lyme halved the deficit in the 56th minute when Hayter shrugged off a challenge before unleashing a 25-yarder that dipped over Clark at full stretch and nestled high in the net.
Two minutes later Lyme should have equalised. Herbst weaved down the right and squared to Kieren Daniels who side footed the ball past the upright with the goal at his mercy.
Just after the hour mark Meech atoned for his earlier error with a magnificent save a full stretch down low in the bottom corner as the Uni attempted to relieve the pressure.
But back came Lyme and Mark Bailey's deep cross from the left was headed just wide by a brave effort from the on-rushing Sam Day.
Seconds later Day dug out a cross under pressure to Herbst whose header was saved by Clarke who then made the save of the match. He parried Bailey's skidding free kick straight to Daniels who seemed certain to score but the young gloveman made a superb instinctive stop and the ball was cleared.
Bailey, who was back to his influential best in the second-half, then set Bowditch though the inside left channel but he couldn't find a way past Clarke.
Lyme were denied twice deep into stoppage time. First Herbst's long throw-in was flicked on by Dan Baggs only for Clarke to claw the ball away from under the crossbar.
Then another effort found its way through the sea of bodies as the Seasiders threw everybody forward but was hacked off the line.
So Lyme's year-long 11-game unbeaten run at the Davey Fort came to an end, but the Fort faithful cannot wish for anymore effort from their favourites.
Next week the Seasiders welcome Witheridge Reserves for their first ever visit to the Davey Fort (2.15pm ko).

BEAMINSTER 3 BARRINGTON 2
BEAMINSTER were awarded three penalties as they edged past Barrington to maintain their three-point lead at top of the Premier Division table.
The first was awarded by referee Simon Salter after Rich Hebditch was hauled down. The striker dusted himself down and made no mistake from 12 yards.
But a slip by Ash Walkey soon gifted Sam Sparrow an equaliser after home keeper Si Taylor had done his best with a treble save.
Barrington took the lead early in the second half when Andy Whitefield's corner somehow found its way past Tom Coggins who was stood guarding the far post.
But the pick of the goals was soon to follow. Substitute Roger Cummins cut in before cracking in a fierce drive which struck both posts before crossing the line to square things up at 2-2.
What proved to be the winner came when Hebditch netted his second penalty. But he squandered the chance of a hat-trick when Coggins was felled in the box and referee Salter pointed to the spot for a third time. This time Hebditch's effort was well saved by keeper James Thompson.
Beaminster manager Gordy Childs gave his MoM award to Coggins with Hebditch and Richie Runyard not far behind.
NETHERBURY 0 SOUTH PERTHERTON 4
NETHERBURY put in a gutsy performance before finally being worn down by title contenders South Perton.
After last week's game the Ambers started confidently and probably shaded the opening 20 minutes, but Perton grew into the game and did fashion some chances but, thanks to a combination of some smart shot stopping from Arthur Gay and some poor finishing, were unable to take them.
Pymore spokesman Matt Tither said: "It's very pleasing to maintain our unbeaten record, and the never say die attitude of the players to fight and come back the way they did was great to see.
Steve Maynard in the centre of the midfield played well and Hussey was lively upfront."
"From our own free kick in a dangerous position we managed to turn attack in to defence and let them through to score their second."
"We're hopefully welcoming back some key players next week and aim to turn ourselves around and start giving ourselves a platform to build from."
"Our recent performances haven't been too bad but we need to start turning good performances into points."
Liam Bennett made no mistake from the penalty spot before Tom Charles netted with a free kick from the halfway line that evaded everybody and an Alex Pope header after Bennett had struck the crossbar edged them ahead for the first time.
A Dan Tucker 20-yarder settled things before Drimpton added a late third.
There was still time for the Chinnis, who struck the woodwork twice more, to miss a late penalty.
Adam Chant (2) and Barry Haynes scored for the visitors.
DIVISION ONE
COMBE ST NICHOLAS 4 PYMORE 5
A LAST minute goal from teenager Jed Holt moved Pymore back to the top of the table and maintained their unbeaten league record.
Pymore started very sloppily and found themselves 2-0 down inside the opening three minutes. But two minutes later Timmy Hussey started the fight back with a smart finish.
Pymore continued to press and went into the break 4-2 up with Hussey grabbing all four. The second half saw Combe pull one back just before the hour.
Hussey had a chance to increase Pymore's lead but fired straight at the keeper when clean through and Combe drew level with about 15 minutes remaining.
FOUR MORE: Tim Hussey took his career tally up to 426
DIVISION THREE
LYME REGIS ROVERS 1 UPLYME RESERVES 5
THE local derby went with form as Division Four title favourites came out on top against neighbours Lyme Regis Rovers.
The Swallows second string, bristling with youthful confidence, took the lead in the 15th minute when Frank Harris surged onto a fine through ball and finished well.
The lead was doubled when the impressive Ryan Smith launched a cross-come-shot from way out wide which drifted over Lyme glove man Jim Larcombe and clipped the crossbar and post before crossing the line.
The killer third goal came before half time when keeper Larcombe flattened Smith on the edge of the area and Jonnie Harris found the top corner with the resulting free kick.
The hosts stepped up the pressure after the break and were rewarded when Jonny Day pulled one back.
But thoughts of a fight back were extinguished soon after when Andriko Pelaou finally slammed the ball home after a series of blocks on the line by Lyme defender Robbie Fowler.
The final goal arrived when substitute Rob Larcombe hauled down Hakim Bibb and James Souter-Phillips tucked away the resulting penalty.

LYME REGIS 1 EXETER UNIVERSITY RES 2

Devon & Exeter League D1

A STIRRING all-action second-half performance from Lyme Regis just failed to salvage a point against the youthful Exeter University seconds string in front of a large crowd at the Davey Fort on Saturday.

Lyme manager Robin Townsend, all too aware of how his side was outgunned in the reverse fixture just three weeks ago, sent his charges out with clear instructions not to stand off their opponents in an attacking 4-3-3 formation.

And the Seasiders certainly flew into some early crunching tackles that set the tone for a high-tempo afternoon.

The first chance came in the 15th minute when Cody Bowditch skipped down the left flank and crossed just beyond the outstretched leg of centre-forward Rhys Hayter.

Soon after teenager Bowditch was narrowly wide with a low shot having been set clear by a clever through ball from Chris Herbst.

After last week's game Netherbury Joint Manager James Sayers said: "I thought our lads were brilliant today and 4-0 is quite harsh on us."

"As well holding Netherbury, we had some dangerous moments ourselves. It was a shame we ran out of legs in the last 15 minutes or so."

In a game full of good performances, he picked out Ryan Kingston, Kristian Steward as Wez Fursman as star men.

WEST & MIDDLE CHINNOCK 4 DRIMPTON 3

DRIMPTON went close to breaking their points duck but ultimately let slip an early 2-0 half-time lead at Oxleaze.

The hosts rallied after the early double shock and struck back three times in the opening 10 minutes of the second half.

"We managed to get the score level early in the second half through Dan Boot, but carried on making life hard for ourselves."

Tough going

THE first two races of the Cool Down Series were raced on Sunday, with strong northerly gusts giving variable boat speeds.

An entry of 11 dinghies, split between single and double-handlers, crossed the start line, with Dominic Bowns & Jake Stowe coming in first, ahead of Solo sailor Andy Robinson with Laser sailor Dan Alsop third.

Cameron Moss & Darroll improved their 4th place to gain a second in the next race, after Dan Alsop looked set to overtake the field battered by a very strong gust only to suffer rudder failure and a dramatic capsize.

Bowns & Stowe scored another win, Cameron making second place and Andy third among only seven finishers.

By contrast, steady light wind and flat seas for race three, saw Jon Turner & Max Helston narrowly beat Jerry Rook & Chet Gillespie by seven seconds, keeping Bowns & Stowe in third place.

All three young crews are continuing to gain valuable experience with top helms.

Andy Robinson was the leading single-hander in fourth place just two seconds later.

Race four had the Moss' taking third, narrowly beaten by Turner & Helston in second and Rook & Gillespie in first. Bowns discards a fourth place to remain one point behind Rook overall in another 13 race series.

Results Overall after Race 4: 1st Jerry Rook & Chet Gillespie (Albacore) 4 points, 2nd Dominic Bowns & Jake Stow (Merlin) 5pts, =3rd Cameron & Darroll Moss (RS 800) 9pts and Andy Robinson (Solo) 9pts, 5th Hugh Duncan (K1) 15pts.

Hadwin at a canter

IN the November Medal, Division One, Andrew Dawe, playing off eight, was one over gross on the front nine, and two over on the back nine, to come in with a stunning nett 66 for the best score of the day leaving the others trailing in his wake.

Despite this, both Roger Turner and Stuart Scott carded an under par nett 70, but on countback Roger took silver and Stuart bronze.

It was close in Division Two as Alasdair Maclean rose to the top with a steady nett 72, while Jeremy Lintner just beat David Binns on countback both with a nett 73.

There was an excellent turnout for the Seniors' November Stableford and for a long time Mike Hankey was leading the field with 36 points, but in the end Ray Shinnies' solid 37 took the Division One title from Mike, with Gavin Seward's 35 giving him 3rd place.

No doubt the best score of the day as David Hadwin helped himself to a sparkling 40 points with a some fine holes to win Division Two, leaving Gareth Vaughan 2nd with 33 and Tony Slater in 3rd on 31.

Squash & Racketball

Bridport taught a lesson

Bridport 3rds 2 JP Blandford 3rds 20

BRIDPORT 2nds were taught a lesson by a very strong Blandford team comprising players who have played at a higher level writes Roger Lewis.

At one for Bridport Riaz Dharamsha was up against the highly experienced John Pitt who counter attacked all the shots that Riaz was allowed to play. Consequently Riaz succumbed 9/3, 9/4, 9/0.

Tim Parkman put in a lot of effort in his number two match against Andy Moores who had to work very hard for his points through his excellent retrieving ability.

Parkman took the first game and was leading in the second when Moores altered his tactics by making full use of the boast and drop shot.

This required a lot more effort for Parkman and he could not stop his opponent and went down 10/8, 3/9, 6/9, 1/9.

Paul Cross met another very experienced player in Martin Trim at three. Although Cross acquitted himself well, it was Trim who won through 9/3, 9/4, 9/3.

Nick Courtice could just get going in the first two games against Blandford's Chris Park whose shots were so accurate it made counter attacking difficult.

The third game it was Courtice calling the tune with some excellent length shots he took that game. This called for a change of tactics from Park who relied heavily on the tight boast shot, and that managed to give him victory 9/2, 9/6, 9/10, 9/3.

Bridport's Tom Munro and Tony Phipps both started tentatively in the number five match. The rallies were frenetic with a lot of hard hitting.

What was missing however was the use of the drop shot and boast which meant a lot of hard work by both players, but in the end it was Phipps who recorded a 9/3, 9/2, 9/5 victory.

A view on the Bees

Bees nailed by Hammers

Hamworthy United Res 5 Bridport Res 0
Dorset Premier League

AFTER reports of an excellent display against Parley the previous week, manager Shaun Annetts, back from holiday, decided to go with the same side against the Hammers.

"When we played them last season they were a very young team and, on the back of last week's performance and their position as second from bottom, we expected that we could do well.

"However, when we arrived we found they had signed some new players, and with no first team game, had included three of their squad, and as a result they were exceptional."

Terrible start

Ryan Kelly scored inside two minutes and added a second in the eighth and, before the young Bees knew it, they were five down inside half an hour with two goals from Connor Phillips and Kelly completing his hat trick.

Annetts said: "We were very poor on the 4G surface and every time they attacked, they scored. I made a tactical change at 4-0 which helped to stem the flow but they were a very good team."

Bridport did have a chance to reduce the arrears just before the break when Josh Hull was felled inside the box, but Simon Gale's spot kick struck the crossbar.

Annetts continued: "It was not worth me having a go at half time as I take full responsibility for the selection, and I underestimated Hamworthy. All I asked was that they go out and get a clean sheet in the second half, which they did."

Annetts was full of praise for keeper Kieron Park who was drafted in late on Saturday morning after Billy Fleet was caught in heavy traffic returning from his work in Birmingham.

"I don't think he can be blamed for any of the goals, and he made at least half a dozen exceptional saves."

Title potential

"We were beaten by power and pace and they used it well, and didn't give us a sniff. If they keep that side then they could well be challenging for the league title."

"I have no fault with anyone, they all tried very hard and did well, particularly in the second half, but clearly we have to appreciate that you can't afford to be three or four goals down and expect to win the game."

"It might hurt them a bit to feel how it is to be well beaten and hopefully they will think about that."

Motor Racing

Speed Hillclimbers celebrate hard-fought season

WITH the on track action of the season complete over 100 drivers gathered at Wiscombe House to celebrate the success of the leading competitors in the 2016 Bridge Tyres and Wheel Point S Wiscombe Park Hillclimb Championship.

After a hard fought season encompassing nine qualifiers Wellington's Anthony Wright took the premier award and a cheque for £300 in his turbo-charged four wheel drive Audi A3.

The former circuit racer has consistently been in the race for the championship in recent years but has always been beaten to the finishing post but this year the operation manager amassed a points total of 90.08 to defeat second placed and reigning champion Ian Ingleheart.

The Mercedes Benz master technician took his Westfield SEi to a tad over two points in arrears of the new champion and collected the Eric Moxom Memorial Trophy for his efforts.

The Westfield marque also featured in the final top three placing with the Suzuki Megabusa powered example of Shillingstone driver Andrew Forsyth claiming third place.

Forsyth's points tally totalled 87.01 in a season of competition at south west venues when he was defeated on only one occasion.

Motor cycle action is a large part of the on-track action at Wiscombe Park and nine times champion Paul Jeffery rode his KTM SMR to secure the British Championships of the National Hill Climb Association winning the prestigious Sir Nicholas Williamson Trophy.

Bude punish confident Hawks

West Dorset Hawks 3 Bude 6

HAVING endured a long journey from Cornwall, West Dorset were quietly confident of victory against Bude, one place and one point below them in the league.

With this in mind, and with goals hard to come by this season without strikers Steve Mearing and Mike Thompson, captain Rick Steele decided it would be a good opportunity to shuffle the players to try and improve their play upfront.

Whether this was a factor or not, West Dorset were struggling from the first whistle, and Bude took advantage of mishit and inaccurate passes to score four in the first 25 minutes.

Although they recovered and play improved Steele decided to revert to normal at halftime, and the second half saw the Hawks take the game to the visitors, and they pulled a goal back from a short corner to reduce the deficit.

Bude responded with another goal, but a great ball from Rick Dorner set up Robin Goodfellow to score.

His determination and drive rallied West Dorset spirits who went on to add another to close the gap to 5-3, but unfortunately Bude hit back with a sixth to make the game safe.

Steele said: "It was a disappointing game for us, but on a positive note we improved and won the second half. We need to get back to form as we face top of the league Chard next week."

Maltby injury mars good point for Hawks

Chard A 0 West Dorset A 0

WEST Dorset A gained their first point in three matches with a battling display against unbeaten Chard A.

With only 10 players available, the Hawks understandably started with a defensive mind set, and the first 15 minutes saw Chard A camped in the their half. However, the defensive back four absorbed the pressure superbly and only allowed the hosts a few half-hearted efforts on goal.

The Hawks' encouraging defensive display slowly built up confidence across the team as the first half wore on.

The central midfield pairing of James Thompson and Dan Wyatt worked tirelessly to help at the back and turn loose play into attacking opportunities, but Chard's extra man ultimately troubled the Hawks' final ball, leaving lone striker John Kellas with simply too much to do.

The second half started as the first ended, with both teams sharing possession but lacking the finishing touch.

With 15 minutes left, the hosts started to get the upper hand with Alex Drew pulling off a few important saves and interceptions.

The match came to an unfortunate close two minutes early when a fierce shot from a Chard short corner struck Giles Maltby on the nose. All at the club wish Giles a speedy recovery.

Team: Alex Drew (Capt), Henry Middleton, Bruce Maltby, Giles Maltby, Matt Caton, Krystian Dubas, Dan Wyatt, James Thompson, Richard Wilson, John Kellas.

Dazza and Skivo at Bridport Grovers

YEOVIL Town manager Darren Way and his assistant Terry Skiverton were the guests of honour at the Bridport Branch of the Grovers Green & White Supporters Club at their annual dinner held at Highland's End Holiday Park recently.

Fifty-seven supporters enjoyed a three course meal before their guests brought them up to date on things on the field at Huish Park and answering questions from their audience.

Founder member Tom Burt said: "Once again it was an enjoyable evening and we thank Darren and Terry for taking time out of what is a very busy schedule."

New pro at Bridport & West Dorset Golf Club

BRIDPORT & West Dorset Golf Club has confirmed the appointment of new Teaching Professional, Rupert Pope.

Rupert was born, bred and received his early education in Dorset moving on to Southampton University leaving with a B.Sc Honours in Geology.

While at University he was introduced to golf. Following his degree course he attended St. Aldgate's College, Oxford gaining a Diploma in Business Management and Marketing (1997-1998).

In 2006 he made a deliberate career choice to make golf his life with a

Bees find going tough

Bridport 0 Cribbs 2

Toolstation Premier – att: 79
 BRIDPORT manager Adam Fricker had no qualms about this result that saw Cribbs take the points with two scrappy goals.

"The conditions weren't great and they played them better than us. I wouldn't say they were better than us, but they played the heavy pitch better than we did."

"It certainly wasn't a game for the spectators; I don't remember either keeper having much to do. We were a goal down at the break, but were much better in the second half, and their second goal came when we were pushing for an equaliser."

Cribbs took the lead following a free kick which the referee later admitted he shouldn't have given. The visitors broke away midway through the first half but Braeden Symes tracked an opponent before producing a superb tackle on the edge of the box to dispossess him. However, the referee at the time deemed that it was illegal and awarded a free kick and booked Symes.

Further misfortune followed when keeper Jason Hutchings lost his footing on the slippery surface as he readjusted to Mason Winter's free kick to give the visitors the lead.

The nearest Bridport came to scoring were a couple of half chances that fell to Ed Tucher.

Fricker introduced Elliot Mann at the break to boost the front line, and Bridport did improve.

They might have pulled one back from a possible penalty when Butcher, perhaps being too honest, stayed on his feet when tackled and the opportunity was lost.

However, despite all their endeavour they were undone again on 78 minutes through another unfortunate goal when Cribbs broke against the run of play and the ball deflected off Ryan Hayter beating the unfortunate Hutchings.

"I've told the lads they need to get used to the heavy pitches over the next couple of months they are going to be like that. It's disappointing from our perspective following a recent good run of form, but that's one poor game in six, so nothing to get worried about at the moment."

Fricker also has a number of injury problems at the moment, so was glad to be able to announce the arrival of Sol Ayunga on a month's loan from Dorchester Town. Ayunga, the younger brother of Jonah who joined Brighton & Hove Albion from the Magpies at the beginning of the year, will add pace to the front line.

Sponsors greeted at rugby club

◆ PRIDE OF PLACE ON SHIRT: Bridport Rugby Club held a buffet lunch at the recent home game with Puddletown for this season's sponsors of the 1st XV. Several sponsors attended and enjoyed an excellent lunch giving them a chance to meet some of the players and officials of the club. This seasons main sponsor 'Black & White IT' were represented by Mark Been pictured above with the 1st XV shirt and club captain Tom Gamwell.
